Indexing and Abstracting Databases, some with Full Text
Clase and Periodica
Citats latinoamericanas en ciencias sociales y humanidades.

An index of Latin American journals in the sciences and humanities. Combines CLASE (Citats Latinoamericanas en Ciencias Sociales y Humanidades), which indexes documents published in Latin American journals specializing in the social sciences and humanities (over 1,200 sources) and PERIODICA, which covers journals specializing in science and technology (over 1,400 sources). Offers access to more than 300,000 bibliographic citations from documents published in 2,600 scholarly journals published in the Spanish, Portuguese, French and English languages. Contains information from articles, essays, book reviews, monographs, conference proceedings, technical reports, interviews and brief notes published in journals edited in 24 different countries of Latin America and the Caribbean, as well as from publications that focus on Pan-American issues. Dates covered: Clase: 1975-present; Periodica: 1978-present.

Chicano Database

 Portions of the Chicano Database have been published as the Chicano Periodical Index, covering 1967-1988; the Chicano Index, of articles and books added since 1989; Arte Chicano: An Annotated Bibliography of Chicano Art, 1965-1981; the Chicano Anthology Index; the Chicana Studies Index: Twenty Years of Gender Research, 1971-1991; and Hispanic Mental Health Research: A Reference Guide, covering 1920-1980. Arte Chicano and Spanish Speaking Mental Health records contain extensive abstracts. It indexes journal articles, newspapers, books and book chapters about Chicanos and also covers the broader Latino experience of Puerto Ricans, Cuban Americans, and Central American immigrants (1992 to the present). This database incorporates the Spanish Speaking Mental Health Database. Broad subject coverage includes art, language, sociology, psychology, public policy, economics, history, literature, politics, and law. The Chicano Database is produced by the University of California, Berkeley, Ethnic Studies Library and is distributed by RLG, a not-for-profit organization of libraries, archives, and museums. You can limit your search to a single language—including English, Spanish, Bilingual (English/Spanish), Portuguese, and Calo, a Chicano dialect, or use several for translations and parallel texts.

ENW: Ethnic NewsWatch

Ethnic NewsWatch is an interdisciplinary, bilingual (English and Spanish) and comprehensive full text database of the newspapers, magazines and journals of the ethnic, minority and native press. Designed to provide the "other side of the story," ENW titles offer additional viewpoints from those proffered by the mainstream press. Coverage begins in 1990.

HAPI Online: Hispanic American Periodicals Index

The searchable Web version of the Hispanic American Periodicals Index, HAPI is a source for authoritative, worldwide information about Central and South America, Mexico, the Caribbean basin, the United States-Mexico border region, and Hispanics in the United States. From analyses of current political, economic, and social issues to unique coverage of Latin American arts and letters, HAPI Online contains complete bibliographic citations to articles, book reviews (through 2001), documents, original literary works, and other materials appearing in more than 500 key social science and humanities journals published throughout the world. Many of the citations are linked to full text. The English language Thesaurus is accompanied by Spanish and Portuguese translations of primary level subject headings which are linked to the Search page. You can limit your search to articles written in other languages (English, Spanish, Portuguese, French, German and Italian) for items indexed in HAPI from 1996 onward. If you do not specify a particular language or languages, the system will retrieve all relevant articles, regardless of the language in which they are written.

JSTOR

(Arts & Sciences I, II, III, and IV Collections and the General Science Collection), includes Language & Literature Collection and the Latin American Studies Collection, with journal articles in Italian, Spanish, Portuguese and French, but does not permit limiting a search by language. Full text JSTOR articles linked to HAPI online through SFX software.

LAN (Latin American Newsletters)

Includes full text of articles in Informe Latinoamericano (Weekly Report in Spanish) and Informes Especiales (Special Reports in Spanish), both 1999- Present. The database may be searched in Spanish and Portuguese. Covers business, economics and political news.

Latin Americanist Research Resources Partnership

The Latin Americanist Research Resources Partnership is a cooperative initiative of North American, Latin American, and Caribbean libraries that seek to improve access to the array of research resources published in Latin America. Its principal goal is to expand access to Latin American research resources by promoting a distributed model of library cooperation, enhanced electronic access, and effective document delivery. It includes:

LAPTOC (Latin American Periodicals Tables of Contents)

LAPTOC is a searchable Web database that provides access to the tables of contents of more than 800 journals, primarily in the humanities and social sciences, published in Latin America. Spanish and Portuguese language versions of the Database Search interface are available, and include “Help” screens in Spanish and Portuguese.

Latin American Open Archives Portal (LAOAP)

LAOAP is a portal service providing access to social sciences grey literature produced in Latin America by research institutes, non-governmental organizations, and peripheral agencies. It encompasses working documents, pre-prints, research papers, statistical documents, and other difficult-to-access materials that are not controlled by commercial publishers. It offers both English and Spanish language search interfaces, and access to full text materials in English, Spanish and Portuguese.

Digital Collection of Mexican and Argentine Presidential Messages

Over 75,000 pages of microfilmed Spanish-language government documents converted to digital format, browsed in Spanish. The Presidential Messages database presidential speeches from the early 19th century to the present from Mexico and Argentina.

Linguistics and Language Behavior Abstracts (LLBA)

Covers many aspects of the study of language, including phonetics, phonology, morphology, syntax and semantics. Coverage is also given to various fields of linguistics including descriptive, historical, comparative, theoretical and geographical linguistics. The Advanced search interface includes, within “Search Tools,” a drop down menu that allows search by language index. This is an abstracting database, however, and SFX links leading to full text rely on the availability of the source in Spanish.

MLA International Bibliography

Modern Language Association (MLA) International Bibliography provides access to bibliographic citations from 1926 to the present in academic disciplines such as language, literature, folklore, linguistics, and film.

The MLA Directory of Periodicals: A Guide to Journals and Series in Languages and Literatures is also included and contains entries on 4,400 of the most frequently cited MLA Bibliography journals. A companion volume to the MLA International Bibliography, the MLA Directory of Periodicals assists scholars with placing their intellectual work.

PAO: Periodicals Archive Online (formerly PCI: Periodicals Contents Full Text)

Periodicals Archive Online is a database that provides indexing, abstracting and full text access for the contents of older issues of periodicals in the humanities and social sciences. Coverage is from 1665-1995. Complete tables of contents are included for each issue of each journal. 350 journals are available online full text through PAO. Search interfaces are available in French, Spanish and English. Includes a “Find Journals by Language” browse function. The database includes the themed collection “Spanish Language” which includes the full text of 25 journals in Spanish. Indexing and abstracting of journals are available in 18 languages, including Spanish (67 journals).
