2. Margaret Sullivan, Interim Regional Chancellor addressed the group. She gave a progress report on accreditation and our work left to do, including the 2011 review and a quality enhancement program. On the financial side, she noted the importance of helping the lower-wage staff as well as more general budgetary issues. A third important arena is governance, especially with respect to USF-system issues. There are system issues for which practices does not follow design.
3. Brie Reck reported on a January 8-9 Faculty Senates Advisory Committee meeting. USFSP is now represented in this group. Topics included education lobbying efforts in Tallahassee, faculty opportunities to provide input into affordable textbook policy guidelines, developing guidelines for distance learning, and budgetary priorities and strategic planning for the state college system.
4. David Carr reported briefly on his meeting with the Campus Advisory Board.
5. Leroy Dubeck will be at Marshall Center 2100 at 2PM, January 22 to talk on "The USF Audited Budget Statement and Beyond." He examines university budgets for the National Education Association; his talk is sponsored by USF-Tampa's Faculty Senate, USF Student Government, and UFF.

That money goes to the USF system and is to be distributed on a competitive basis for different projects proposed by faculty, students, and others.
