Hope: Artwork by Aithan Shapira

Florida Holocaust Museum

This exhibition focuses on the artist Aithan Shapira's works on contemporary notions of hope. He has created a universal symbol from an abandoned life preserver—one cut from discarded cardboard, another painted in a fox trap, and hundreds made of concrete. Shapira's reconfigured visual metaphors display the life preserver as an emblem of our capacity as citizens to reach out and instill hope in each other.
