AV News:

Jerry sent out the revised script for voice mail. Hopefully this will help direct phone inquiries to appropriate departments and in that way improve service.

Script for Library Recorded Message:

Calls come to 9123

"You have reached the Nelson Poynter Memorial Library. If you are using a touch-tone telephone please press 1 now."

Calls which do not have touch-tone ring immediately to 3405 to be answered. No voice mail.

"If you know your party's extension you may enter it at any time during this message. For the library's hours, press 1 now." Caller hears library hours. Press 1 to return to menu.

"To speak to someone in the Circulation Department, press 2 now. Caller is connected to 3405. No voice mail.

"If you would like to speak with a reference librarian, please press 3 now." Rings 9124, no voice mail.

"For Instructional Media Services, press 4 now." Caller is connected to 3409, with voice mail.
"If you wish to reach the Library Director’s Office, please press 5 now."
Caller is connected to 3401 with voice mail.

"To connect to the Collection Development and Gifts department, please press 6 now." Rings 3404 with voice mail.

Public Services News:

Bibliographic Instruction
USF-St. Petersburg Orientation and library tours will be conducted Friday April 21, 1995 from about noon onwards. Be prepared for larger than normal groups entering the library. Jackie Jackson will be guiding the tours.

Reference
Jackie Shew is following the discussions about the development of location-based (boolean) searching on our OPAC. If you are interested in this and want to see some of the technical discussions, contact Jackie Shew and she will forward these messages to your email.

Reserves
JJ has sent out notices to the faculty about the disposition of their reserve materials. If faculty or Teaching Assistants come to the library to remove items, please be sure to remove the barcodes from the items and leave them on her desk. This is very important.

Internet & other techie stuff:

The next issue of Internet World focuses on the WEB. There are several interesting articles, e.g. "Home Sweet Home Page" on p.22 tells neophytes how to start setting up your own home page. With your own home page you can organize your favorite WEB sites in a way that is convenient for you. another article on page 28 explains the relationship of the WEB and the Internet.

Humor:
Lastly, a resistible WEB site but one that may give you a laugh when you need it http://www.primus.com/staff/paulp/useless.html - silly WEB sites.
