ONE OF HIS NEWEST ALBUMS, "MIRAGE," FEATURES A BLEND OF MODERN FUNK AND ELECTRIC ROCK AND ROLL. PERFORMED BY HAVENS AND HIS NEW TOURING BAND CYPRESS, THE MATERIAL RANGES FROM FUNKY NEW ORLEANS' TUNES BY ALLEN TOUSSAINT AND THE ALESSI BROTHERS, TO THREE NEW HAVENS COMPOSITIONS.

HAVENS ALSO LIKES TO TAKE ESTABLISHED HITS AND GIVE THEM DIFFERENT MUSICAL SLANTS. FOR INSTANCE, HE HAS REWORKED BOB DYLAN'S 'COUNTRY INTERLUDE,' "IF NOT FOR YOU," INTO A BOOGIE NUMBER WITH ROCK APPEAL. ON DYLAN'S "JUST LIKE A WOMAN," HE IS TENDER AND MYSTIFIED. ON GEORGE HARRISON'S "HERE COMES THE SUN," HE IS JOYOUS. HE SINGS/CHANTS/SHOUTS "WITHOUT LOVE, WHERE WOULD YOU BE NOW" FROM THE DOOBIE BROTHERS HIT.

A BLACK ENTERTAINER, HAVENS HAS A PROMINENTLY WHITE AUDIENCE. HIS MUSIC, HE CONTENDS, IS UNIVERSAL. "THAT HAS BEEN MY MAIN CONCERN SINCE THE BEGINNING. THERE ARE SOME SONGS THAT ARE UNIVERSAL BECAUSE EVERYONE'S EXPERIENCED THEIR VIBES. OTHERS ARE SUNG IN A WAY THAT GIVES EVERYONE THAT UNIVERSAL FEELING. I TRY TO DO BOTH," HE SAID.

RICHIE HAVENS CONCERT BENEFITS USF MARINE SCIENCE PROGRAM

The marine science department at the University of South Florida is expected to benefit from Bayboro Jam, an afternoon and evening of musical entertainment presented by singer/guitarist Richie Havens and seven Bay Area bands, Nov. 5 at the St. Petersburg Bayfront Center.

Bayboro Productions and other local citizens interested in promoting marine science at USF, are presenting the concert starting at 3 PM. Proceeds will be donated to the USF Foundation to establish a new marine science scholarship fund.

Marine Science Chairperson Dr. Jack Briggs hopes that such scholarships (not now available at USF) will help entice more high-quality, nationally competitive students into the marine science graduate program at USF.

Tickets for Bayboro Jam are $6 each and are available in advance at the USF, St. Pete Campus Student Activities Office.

Bayboro Jam will be a continuous afternoon and evening music performance featuring Havens, who is perhaps best known for his fast-paced gospel chant, "Freedom," which opened the famous rock movie, "Woodstock" and several well-known Bay Area bands. They include Early Tymes, Old Limousine, Gator Bait, Zakou, Florida Power, Kisses and Briar Hill. Redbeard will be the master of ceremonies.

Richie Havens' music is included in many record collections of the 1960's folk/rock musicians. His debut album, "Mixed Bag," released in 1966 to unanimous critical acclaim, introduced Havens' husky voice and his unique instrumental style. He taught himself to play guitar, developing an unorthodox style of open tuning that enables him to play a variety of chord patterns.

Since then, Havens has released a dozen well-received albums and has become widely-known as a composer, singer and musician who performs concert engagements and at clubs across the country.

FACULTY and STAFF
LIBRARY POLICY CHANGE

In an effort to improve the circulation of library materials and provide more equity in their use, the Library Council and the Vice President for Academic Affairs have approved the extension of the library fine policy to include faculty and staff, effective Oct. 1, 1978.

The overdue fine schedule (Chap.6C-7 Administrative Code) is as follows:
- Library fines-per book, or unit, per day: 25¢
- Reserve library books-per book, per library hour: 25¢

The present extended loan period (April 1, October 1 due dates) will be retained for current USF faculty and staff with proper identification.

Fines for "HOLD" books will begin three days after notification of the need for these books. These notifications will be sent to your official campus address.

A computer produced reminder notice will be sent one week before any fines will be charged. Courtesy overdue notices and charges for books not returned within a reasonable length of time will be sent as stated in the general circulation policy available at the circulation desk.

If you have questions, please contact the Circulation Librarian (2723) or the Director's Office (2721).

USF/SP believes that participation in cultural and recreational activities is an integral part of a student's formal education, and that constructive use of leisure time is a desirable goal.

Due to the lack of cultural and recreational resources on the St. Pete Campus, student participation in many community events is directly subsidized to compensate for these deficiencies.

Students taking the majority of hours on the St. Petersburg Campus will be allocated $0.80 per credit hour to be applied toward subsidization. Proof of fee payment (usually a validated registration sheet listing your hours) and your student photo I.D. are required.

Once you have used your subsidy, you may still buy tickets at our PURCHASE PRICE, which is often much lower than the regular retail price. For example:

LULLABY OF BARLEY
by V.V. Johnson

She sings a time-worn love song,
In husky baritone,
Daddy, the well known tenor,
Has not yet come home.

She rocks the cradle gently,
To hush the baby's cry
"TO"
But, where in hell is Daddy?

"OUCH!"
A hornet stung me in the arm
And I with no intent to harm
Yet with no wish for it to stay
Smashed that bugger right away!

by J.P. Gerard

Why not, too,
Me and you,
Dinner for two.

CHAINED IN THE SOUTH
by Anonymous

When spring turns to winter with no apparent differences life becomes superficial time monotonous
no greens to browns to barreness
just infinite green boredom impatience like being caught in a traffic jam
the retreat of eternal lingering aged reminders of the stasis
unyielding hard and sharp florida grass where man and heat vary few degrees clouds are cheered rain awarded free papers

Only the Protean Sea provides a harbor
Its salt-spray kills the grass

"I can't take anymore," cried a man with army fatigues covering his plump body. Sweat dripped from his forehead as he sat down to rest himself in the shade. The sun seemed to be forcing its rays upon the bodies of the other members of the party, drawing every drop of sweat from each pore. The older members of the party scorned the grubby-looking man because he was one of the many who had deserted the cause. The younger members only looked down the hill with sympathetic nods as the heat of the sun made the images of the bodies to the left and right of the road hard to see.

No one cared about those that left them while coming down a hill because all was easy and the wind of the ride dried their sweat and cooled their burning foreheads but now they had to make it to the top of the hill for the joyous ride on the other side. The hill would become steeper, everyone knew. A young man with long hair and a beard spoke out "The joyous ride is nearly at hand." In an instant, the crowd burst into cries of, "Curse the cowards that have left us and will leave us now," as the young man shook his head in disgust.

The wagon became heavier as the hill became steeper. Cries of pain filled the air as they slowly pushed the wagon to the top of the hill. Many gave up and fell to the side where the shade cooled their tormented bodies. "At last," a voice shouted. "Blessed are they that fell by the wayside but died for the cause," another shouted. True enough the hill would soon be at its peak and the view overlooking the splendor of the downhill course would brighten many eyes.

The peak came sooner than expected but there was no journey down for there was another dip in the road and still another hill. "The damned cowards. They should all be here to see this," an old man cried as the wagon rolled on.

NCAA College Soccer Championship

Sports Tampa, Inc., Tuesday signed the contract with Tampa Stadium for the 1978 NCAA College Soccer Championship to be held on December 9 and 10.

Attorneys Thomas H. Singletary and Robert A. Tropp, representatives of Sports Tampa signed the contract and completed the final step in sealing the championship tournament for Tampa.

At the same time, the pair announced that ticket sales for the event will be available beginning Nov. 6 at all area Maas Brothers stores, including Lakeland, Winter Haven and Sarasota. Maas Brothers has agreed to be the exclusive ticket outlet for the NCAA tournament. Student tickets, however, will also be available at the University of South Florida, host school for the event.

Ticket prices for the two-day affair are $4.00 per day for adult tickets and $6.00 for both days, a saving of $2.00 for a two-day discount ticket. Ticket price for students, senior citizens and youngsters will be $2.00 per day or $3.00 for the tournament on a two-day discount ticket.

As an added bonus, tickets will also be worth a $50 rebate toward the purchase of a car at University Toyota in Tampa, one of the many business groups supporting the NCAA event.

Game times for both days are 1:30 and 3:30 with the championship finals on Sunday, December 10.

"We are glad to get everything finalized," said Singletary. "This event will be one of the best college attractions in the Tampa Bay Area in a few years. We are happy that we are in on the beginning of something exciting.

Billed as the "Super Soccer Weekend", the tournament will be surrounded with a variety of activities. Several clinics will be held prior to the tournament and several youth soccer teams will perform at half-time and prior to the start of the day's games.

Tampa seeks to become the permanent site of the NCAA Championship and it is hoped that this year's attendance for the two-day tourney surpasses last year's record mark of 16,500 when the event was held at the University of California at Berkeley.

"With Tampa's emergence as a soccer city, the success of this event can only enhance that image," said Singletary.
