University of South Florida St. Petersburg.
USF/SP believes that participation in cultural and recreational activities is an integral part of a student's formal education, and that constructive use of leisure time is a desirable goal.

Due to the lack of cultural and recreational resources on the St. Pete Campus, student participation in many community events is directly subsidized to compensate for these deficiencies.

Students taking the majority of hours on the St. Petersburg Campus will be allocated $0.80 per credit hour to be applied toward subsidization. Proof of fee payment (usually a validated registration sheet listing your hours) and your student photo I.D. are required.

Once you have used your subsidy, you may still buy tickets at our PURCHASE PRICE, which is often much lower than the regular retail price. For example:

<th>Regular Cost</th>
<th>USF Cost</th>

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>up to $7.00</td>
<td>$3.00</td>
<td>As low as $1.00 by using $2.00 of your subsidy. A student taking 7 hrs. (times 80¢ per hr.) would have $5.60 subsidy.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Tickets may also be purchased for events at Bayfront Center, Asolo Theatre in Sarasota during its repertory season, and Country Dinner Playhouse (USF group night). Staff and faculty may buy tickets at our PURCHASE PRICE.

Generally, the student must pay at least $1.00 per subsidized ticket.

All tickets for Bayfront Center events must be procured at least 24 hours prior to event. Exchange YELLOW RECEIPT for tickets at the BOX OFFICE.

A list of TICKETS-ON-SALE is posted at the Activities Desk.

DEADLINE: LAST DAY TO PURCHASE SUBSIDIZED TICKETS IS WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 13.
The Museum of Fine Arts in St. Petersburg will hold its annual Christmas Open House on Sunday, December 10 from 2:00 P.M. to 4:00 P.M. The public is cordially invited to attend this holiday celebration which will feature the Museum's beautifully decorated Christmas tree.

Refreshments will be served and the Anthonians, a group of singers from St. Anthony's Hospital, will provide the music for the event. A silver bowl donation is available for those who wish to make a contribution.

The Museum of Fine Arts is located at 255 Beach Drive North in St. Petersburg. The hours are 10:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. from Tuesday to Saturday and 1:00 P.M. to 5:00 P.M. on Sunday. The Museum is closed on Monday.

NOEL WISDOM PRINTS

A group of prints from the collection of Noel Wisdom will be in the Collector's Gallery of the Museum of Fine Arts from November 17 through January 7, 1979.

The collection includes etchings, lithographs and engravings from the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. Such British and French printmakers as Jean Louis Forain, Edouard Manet, J.M.W. Turner, and Henry G. Rushbury are represented.

Noel Wisdom has had many artistic interests aside from his print collecting. He has become known in this area as a scissor-cut silhouette artist, a talent which has earned him his way around the world three times. Mr. Wisdom has also sketched everything from his infantry days during the war in France in 1915 to people in department stores in London. He developed an interest in art during his many visits to the British Museum as a child growing up in England, and he further cultivated it during his world travels to places such as Australia and Tahiti.

I'm sure that every student has wondered at one time or another if there is some particular formula one should use in securing an "A" from an instructor.

First of all, come to class late, occasionally. (Not too often). Your tardiness gives the instructor a better look at you while disrupting his class. Sit where you can easily be seen. The very back of the room is quite sufficient. The instructor will recognize something profound about the student who sits alone.

Keep in mind that the instructor in front of you is a fickle one. The success of his method depends on the positive reinforcement that you give him. Establish eye contact. Look genuinely interested in what he is saying even if you really are not. I have found that an occasional nod of the head in agreement or as a sign of approval works wonders. An occasional smile is in order, but be careful not to give the impression that you are looking for friendship. Instructors want your attention but not your friendship!

During the break or after class (not before class, they aren't up for you yet) very casually stroll to the instructor and ask for advice concerning outside reading material. Take the advice and make a quick getaway! He or she might start a discussion about the reading assignment you should have read. This could be disastrous.

Now, concerning written assignments, always turn your first paper in on time. After this, it won't hurt to make one or two assignments late. On the paper or papers that you choose to turn in late, do not follow any format which the instructor may assign. Choose the format of the paper to your own liking. The reason for this is that the instructor will be impressed to know you are not one to conform to deadlines or formats.

Last, but not to be taken lightly, with your final assignment or exam, attach a small note reading:

Dear Instructor,
I am really sorry that this course is ending. I feel as though I've just begun to learn. Your method has been very fulfilling.
Sincerely,
Serious Student

Remember, all of these things must be done in moderation. If by chance you do not succeed, then, I suggest that you begin following course syllabuses closely and realize that all instructors are not fickle.

DISCOVER BRAHMAN BASKETBALL ON WUSF-TV
Beginning November 29th, discover basketball, when the Channel Sixteen cameras move onto the courts to cover the USF Brahman home games for the 7th season.

For the first time, Channel Sixteen offers its viewers "live" coverage of three Brahman home games. These games originating from USF's gymnasium are against Eckerd College (Nov. 29), Georgia College (Dec. 9), and Central Methodist (Jan. 12). The remainder of the season's home games will be taped and broadcast at 10:00 p.m. the night of each home game. This taped delay offers Channel Sixteen viewers college basketball and give USF Brahman spectators the advantage of "seeing that great play" again.

The Sixteen cameras follow the plays and Charles Hewitt, Assistant Vice-President of Student Affairs, comes to Channel Sixteen for the first time as color announcer. John Brill returns for another season to call the games as the Brahms lock horns with regional challengers.

The University of San Francisco found itself a spot in the 1978 NCAA College Soccer Championship at Tampa Stadium on December 9 and 10, while five more teams edged closer to playoff berths.

The Dons, 24-1 on the year, drew a bye in the semi-finals after Santa Clara and San Jose State were declared ineligible for the playoffs under NCAA rules. Washington, the fourth team in the Far West playoffs had already lost in the regular season to San Francisco, giving the west champion a place in the tournament finale.

Advancing to third round games were Clemson, 2-1 winners over Appalachian State; Philadelphia Textile, 2-1 victors over Temple and top ranked Indiana University, who edged out old nemesis Cleveland State by 3-1. The only blemish on the Hoosier's record this season was a 1-0 loss to Cleveland State.

The other third round finalists are Southern Illinois-Edwardsville, 3-2 overtime winners against tough soccer powerhouse St. Louis University. SIU will face Indiana in the Midwest finals to determine the representative in the Tampa playoffs.

Clemson meets St. Francis, who advanced with a 3-1 decision over Columbia. The Brown and Connecticut playoff winner will meet Philadelphia Textile.

Clemson, Philadelphia, USF and Indiana are the favorites and are expected to make it to Tampa for the Championship.

The first round of the Tampa tourney will be played on Saturday at 1:30 PM and 3:30 PM with the finals on Sunday at 1:30 PM and 3:30 PM. It is the first time Tampa has played host to the NCAA Soccer Championship and sponsoring Sports Tampa, Inc., and the University of South Florida, the host school for the event, are determined to make the games a permanent fixture for the Bay Area.

Attendance for the two-day affair is expected to surpass last year's record turnout of 16,500 at the University of California, Berkeley.

Tampa Stadium will be the site of the tourney for the next two years with the option to renew after that.

"We know this is a good thing for the University of South Florida and the University of Tampa soccer teams and for the community as a whole," said Tom Singletary, President of Sports Tampa, Inc.

"We want the community to rally around us and help us show the NCAA that we mean business and that we are truly the soccer capital of the country. It's going to take a lot of hard work and dedication, but we believe we have the best fans in the world here and to top last year's attendance mark over two days is not unreasonable."

Tickets for the two-day affair are at all area Maas Bros. stores, the University of South Florida, University of Tampa or from Sports Tampa, Inc., P.O. Box 1044, Tampa 33601.

Adult tickets are $4.00 for single day games and $6.00 for both days. Students, kids and senior citizens can get single day tickets for $2.00 or both days for $3.00.

In addition to the regular tournament, the Tampa Bay Rowdies players will be conducting a coaching clinic for would-be soccer coaches on Saturday, with the time to be announced. Youth skills clinics will also go on on Saturday and youth soccer matches will be featured before and during halftime of the regular games.
