"Brown Bag Lunch" Lecture Series

The USF St. Petersburg Lecture Series Committee begins its Wednesday "Brown Bag Lunch" Lecture Series for Semester I on September 11. You bring your lunch...we'll provide a beverage...and lively provocative slide-presentations, lectures, demonstrations, workshops, etc. It's FREE and open to the public. Programs are at noon in BAY-130.

The schedule for September is:

SEPTEMBER 11 TIBET: INCREDIBLE ADVENTURE TO THE ROOF OF THE WORLD Guest Speaker: PROF. HARRY SCHAULEMAN, JR., USF Department of Geography

Prof. Schuleman presents a slide-lecture on his summer journey to Shangri-La. Highlights include the legendary Potala palace of the Dalai Lama, the charm of long-inaccessible Lhasa and Xigaze, the scenic beauty of the snow-capped Himalayas, and the warmth, color, and friendliness of the handsome Tibetan people. Long a mysterious land, isolated geographically and politically, Tibet now enters the contemporary world under the influence and direction of the People's Republic of China. Brief glimpses into selected cities of China, as well as a boat trip down the flood-swollen Yangtze are included.

SEPTEMBER 18 PRESENTING THE PIANO FORTE Guest Speaker: PROF. JANICE BROCKUS, USF College of Fine Arts, and Director of Music, Christ United Methodist Church, St. Petersburg

In this lecture-demonstration, Prof. Brockus discusses the place of the piano and other keyboard instruments in the history of music.

SEPTEMBER 25 THE BEST AND WORST OF WILLIAM FAULKNER: A BIRTHDAY SALUTE Guest Speaker: PROF. LAWRENCE BROER, USF Department of English

Prof. Broer will discuss the way in which Faulkner used his work to reconcile his many paradoxical twins: the misanthrope, who possessed an unflagging optimism; the man who admired dignity and perseverance above all human traits, and yet regularly used alcohol as a narcotizing device.
Dean's Honor List

Congratulations to the following St. Petersburg Campus students. Each made the DEAN'S HONOR LIST for Semester III, 1985. Certificates may be ordered (free) at the Activities Office before September 20. Pick up is September 24 - October 4.

Scholarship Available

Application forms are available for the BETTE HOYT MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP. Forms may be picked up on the table outside of the Financial Aid Office (BAY-117).

The deadline to apply for the $500 scholarship is September 15, 1985. Eligibility requirements are: Woman student; Major: Political Science; minimum G.P.A. - 3.0; registered Democratic voter in Pinellas County.

Day Care Subsidy

Students with pre-school children may participate in the Day Care Subsidy program. For further information and registration for Semester I, please contact the Office of Student Affairs (BAY-114). Ask for DONNA HAVENS. Children must be registered in a licensed Day Care Home or Center.

Financial Aid News

FINANCIAL AID LATE?

If your financial aid check is not available to you by the end of the first week of school, you may be eligible for a late payment fee waiver.

To check for your eligibility, please see the notice on the Financial Aid bulletin board (BAY-117) to check the requirements for such a waiver.

Important changes in course cancellation information: Students who submitted forms after the deadlines:

1) will be charged a late payment fee;

2) will be cancelled November 15 unless they request otherwise in writing and make payment arrangements with the Cashier's Office in Tampa (ADM 131, phone 974-2711).

FINANCIAL AID RECIPIENTS -- IMPORTANT!

Be aware that all financial aid recipients must meet certain standards of satisfactory progress in order to continue their eligibility for aid. Those standards include maintaining a minimum G.P.A. (2.0 undergraduate; 3.0 graduate), making sufficient progress toward a degree each semester in attendance, and completing an educational objective within a given time frame (all semesters attended at any post-secondary school will be included, whether or not aid is received).

If you have not received a copy of the Standards of Satisfactory Progress by mail, please pick up a brochure at the Financial Aid Office (BAY-117). Don't put your aid in jeopardy and be taken by surprise by ignoring this brochure. Be aware of your own progress at all times.

Watch for the HOW-TO series of flyers designed to help students stretch their aid dollars and perhaps broaden their own resources available for educational expenses.

These flyers will be found on the Financial Aid table (BAY-117) and new ones will appear from time to time during the school year.
