Introduction to the Collection

The materials in this series of the Administration and Finance Administrative Files reflect the work of Herman J. Brames, former Vice President of Administration and Finance at the University of South Florida St. Petersburg. Mr. Brames joined the University of South Florida in 1964 as a resident instructor in Beta Hall on the Tampa campus. He also taught behavioral science courses in the College of Basic Studies. By 1965, the University applied to the federal government to take over the former site of the United States Maritime Service Training Station along Bayboro Harbor. The buildings and structures along Bayboro harbor’s peninsula that occupied approximately 11.5 acres formed the original site of the USF St. Petersburg campus. Mr. Brames came to the campus as Center Administrator in August 1966. Over the years, he held many leadership positions on campus, retiring in the spring of 2003 as Vice President of Administration and Finance. This position included oversight of campus site acquisitions and improvements, physical plant, and auxiliary services.

Preservation Note

The materials in this collection occupy three acid-free document boxes. While preservation measures may slow the physical deterioration of items, these steps cannot prevent damage from occurring. To prevent further damage to the fragile materials in this collection, avoid exposing them to light for an extended period of time. Please report any tears or other damage so that library staff may take appropriate preservation or conservation measures. Although no restrictions limit access to this collection, library staff will evaluate photocopying or digitization requests on an individual basis to ensure the long-term preservation of this unique collection.

Provenance of the Administration and Finance Administrative Files

The records of this USF St. Petersburg office, collected and maintained by Herman J. Brames, fall under Record Group 501 (Office of the Director/Associate Vice President, Administration and Finance) of the USF St. Petersburg Archives, Special Collections and Archives department, Nelson Poynter Memorial Library.

Scope and Contents

The contents occupy three document boxes (1.09 linear feet). This collection includes clippings, correspondence, memoranda, photographs, blueprints, property records, and reports related to the duties of the Administration and Finance Office. The bulk of the collection (dates: 1963 to 1984) is composed of property information related to the original campus site along Bayboro Harbor and annual reports submitted to the United States Department of Health, Education, and Welfare (HEW) to comply with terms for acquiring this site, the former location of the United States Maritime Service Training Station. The overall collection (inclusive dates: 1913 to 1999) also contains various correspondence, reports, site files, and other documents related to the growth of the USF St. Petersburg campus through the 1990s.
