Rep. Woodruff to Speak

The Legalis Society, a campus club for students interested in government and pre-law studies, is sponsoring a lecture by T.M. "Tom" WOODRUFF, State Representative, District 58.

The presentation is scheduled for Monday, October 14, at 5:00 PM in Bayboro Hall, Room 130, according to club president ROBERT LINN.

Woodruff will speak on the new medical malpractice law, indigent health care, other State issues and recent accomplishments from the House.

All members of the campus community are invited to attend.

Scholarships

The Office of Student Affairs is pleased to announce the beginning of a program of scholarships specifically for St. Petersburg Campus students. Applications and information relating to three new scholarships that are now available can be picked up from the table and bulletin board outside the Financial Aid Office (BAY-115). The deadline for current applications is OCTOBER 25.

Watch for new applications and different scholarships that have application periods during the Spring semester.

Health Fair

The Student Nurses Association will sponsor a day-long HEALTH FAIR on Wednesday, Nov. 6. Watch for details!
USF Enrollment

The USF Tampa Campus has preliminary fall semester enrollment of more than 27,904 students, according to the Office of Resource and Policy Analysis. That figure represents nearly 100 more students than were enrolled in the fall of 1984.

Initial figures show 23,376 students enrolled at the Tampa Campus and 4,867 students attending the Regional Campuses at St. Petersburg, Fort Myers, Sarasota and New College.

The St. Petersburg Campus has an enrollment of 2,670, Fort Myers reports 985, Sarasota has 1,213 enrolled and New College has 428 students.

The enrollment figures include 373 medical students and 3,551 graduate students.

Honors Convocation

The high achievements of State Senator Betty Castor and USF faculty and students will be recognized at the 24th annual USF Honors convocation at 2:30 PM on Friday, Oct. 18 in the Sun Dome.

Castor, a former USF lobbyist, will be honored for her outstanding leadership as a State legislator. She served as Director of Legislative Relations in the Division of University Relations at USF from October 1979 to September 1982, between her terms in the legislature. During the past legislative session she was elected president pro temp of the Senate.

Honors recognition is accorded those students who have achieved a 3.5 or higher grade point average and have completed a minimum of 24 semester hours during the past year. Selected faculty will be recognized for outstanding performance and major contributions to the University.

USF President John Lott Brown and William H. Scheuerle, Dean of Undergraduate Studies and University Marshall, will officiate at the ceremony.

The Honors Convocation precedes by one day the annual national celebration of Higher Education Week, Oct. 19-26, sponsored by the Council for Advancement and Support of Education (CASE).
