Arts Shine Here

Support your favorite arts institution and promote our City of the Arts!

Our local arts & cultural institutions are being featured on streetlamp banners proclaiming proudly that “The Arts Shine Here”! The original banners were donated to our City three years ago and are badly in need of replacement. The Arts Alliance has a crowd funding challenge grant to help us replace our old banners with new ones to promote St. Petersburg as an arts and cultural destination!

Your contribution will be matched one-to-one to produce banners that feature our museums, theatre, music, and other non-profit arts institutions. With your support, residents and visitors will take pride in seeing new festive arts banners “flying” around town.

Please visit Power2Give to learn more and make a tax-deductible contribution that will be matched for the banner program.
