The Nelson Poynter Memorial Library of the University of South Florida at St. Petersburg features two special exhibits during May and June.

"Charles Blake’s Present of the Past," sponsored by the St. Petersburg Times, displays delicate watercolors of St. Petersburg and the Lower Pinellas peninsula. Blake painted these pictures from 1929 - 1936, though the works are scenes from an earlier era.

The exhibit continues through June 1. The pictures will change each week.

The Polish Culture Club of Pinellas County is sponsoring an exhibit displaying the Battle of Vienna (1683) and its impact on world history. It can be viewed in the Poynter Library until the end of June.

For further information and Library hours, call 893-9125.
