ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (September 16, 2011) – A pair of USF St. Petersburg students are trying to make a difference in the community, simply by putting swings up all over the Tampa Bay area. The University Beat program on WUSF Public Media will introduce Reuben Pressman and Hunter Payne, the two students behind “Swings Tampa Bay” and show how their idea is helping to bring people together.

The University Beat television report runs on WUSF TV Sept. 19 – Oct. 2, on weekdays between 11:55 a.m. and noon, between 11:25 and 11:30 p.m., and at one or two other various times each day; and on weekends at three or four various times each day.

The University Beat radio report runs on WUSF 89.7 FM on Tuesday, Sept. 20, just after the 6:30 and 8:30 a.m. newscasts and on Thursday, Sept. 22 shortly after 5:40 p.m. It will also run on WSMR 89.1 FM at 7:30 p.m. Friday, Sept. 23.

University Beat is a radio and television program on WUSF 89.7 FM, WSMR 89.1 FM and WUSF TV that focuses on work and research from the University of South Florida System, and how it benefits the Tampa Bay area, Florida, and the world around us. Each week, reporter/producer Mark Schreiner looks at the latest efforts in medicine, engineering, education, arts and sciences and explores other programs that reach out to both students and the community.
