Dean's Honor List Additions—with Apologies

The following Dean's List Honor Students were not included in the names published in the February CROW'S NEST, and apology is due each one:

LYN F. CASSEDAY
JENNIFER EVANS
BARBARA ROSENKE

A special apology to LYN CASSEDAY whose name was omitted from the St. Petersburg Campus Dean's List for Semester I, 1984. Unfortunately, the same kind of oversight resulted in the omission of Lyn's name for Semester II, 1984, and we are doubly sorry. Really, Lyn, you are not on a hit list. One cannot explain the coincidence of skipping the same name twice, but there is a reason for our inaccuracy in publishing these lists.

Since 1978, this campus has been requesting a computer printout of the St. Petersburg Campus students who appear on the USF Dean's Honor List. This request has never been considered to be of sufficiently high priority to warrant the implementation of such a program, in spite of the considerable growth and development we have seen in computer services.

As a result, in order to create a St. Petersburg Campus Dean's Honor List, the names must be extracted manually each semester—a tedious task requiring hours of visual comparisons between the St. Petersburg Enrollment list and the USF Dean's List (all campuses). Invariably, names are missed, and we then publish them in the next edition of the CROW'S NEST.

We'll keep working on this problem; and, meanwhile, we hope that the omissions will be few.

Bayboro Windship Regatta

Skippers and crew will receive souvenir tee shirts; trophies will be awarded to the top three finishers. Awards will be presented at a habor-side fish fry immediately following the race. Spectators are welcome. Music by a local steel drum band will also enliven the festivities.

The program is being coordinated by CLIFF BARE, Recreation Supervisor, with assistance from the Activities staff.

USF Sailboats Named

Names for the St. Petersburg Campus sailboats were announced by CLIFF BARE, Recreation Supervisor, at USF Homecoming ceremonies on February 13.
Student CURTIS CATLIN submitted the admirable name ADMIRAL BULL, which was duly given to the stalwart CAL 20. The RHODES 19 was dubbed FOR SAIL, courtesy of STEPHEN DINKLAGE. JIM PURVIANCE, a Finance major, was a double winner, contributing two selections: DIVERSION, for the CATALINA 22, and BULLSEYE, for the SPORTCRAFT 16, a motor boat. WINDY DAZE, an entry by FRAN SEAGRAVE, Financial Aid Office, was bestowed upon the new STARWIND 22.

The names were selected by a committee from over 207 entries received during the Name-A-Boat contest in January. Prizes were presented to the winners.

CATLIN, DINKLAGE and PURVIANCE are certified skippers in the Watercraft Program. SEAGRAVE is a "landlubber."

Welcome, STARWIND 22

The newest addition to the St. Petersburg Campus fleet of sailboats, a STARWIND 22, was christened in a short ceremony on February 13 at Haney Landing. DR. STEPHEN RITCH, Director of Student Affairs, cut the green and gold ribbons amid the cheers of the assembled students and staff. The group braved cool, gusty breezes, befitting the boat's name WINDY DAZE, to toast the arrival of the new sailboat.

May the best days of your past be the worst days of your future.
