Active Shooter Info	On this date at approximately 11:28PM while officers were patrolling the parking garage they observed a suspicious vehicle, with a white male sitting in the driver's seat. As he exited the vehicle officers detected a strong odor of burnt Cannabis emanating from the subject's person. At that time no stop was made. After an investigation was made it was determined that the subject in the vehicle was a student and resided at RHO. Officers went to his room where he was interviewed. He waived his Miranda Rights, and gave consent to search his vehicle resulting in the above charges.

Parking Services	On this date at approximately 7:51AM the theft of a book was reported by a staff member at Barnes & Noble. The staff member reported that an unknown white male selected a book and left the store without paying for it. Also, the witness provided a detailed description, and that his direction of travel was north from the store, on foot. A few minutes later the responding Officer made contact with the suspect, and when he was interviewed he provided the Officer with a fictitious name. After positive identification was made by the witness he placed the suspect under arrest.
