golden signet service award

Three students attending the St. Petersburg Campus of the University of South Florida received the Golden Signet Award at a ceremony on Wednesday, April 7. The service award is presented to students who have made exceptional contributions to the University community. They are:

VIRGINIA LITITRELL
Major: History

EUGENE SMILEY
Major: Sociology

EMILY FITTS TUREK
Major: Management

The reception was held at the St. Petersburg Campus in conjunction with USF's Honors Week.

commencement

1982 Commencement exercises are scheduled for Saturday, May 1, at 10:00 a.m., harborside at Bayboro Hall. This event is the first of its kind ever to be held on this campus, and, from now on, will take the place of the exercises in Tampa for the St. Petersburg Campus graduates (although you may attend both if you like). Undergraduates with graduation dates August '81, December '81, May '82 and August '82 may participate. Graduates with graduation dates August '71, December '81, and May '82 also may be a part of the ceremony. Of course, your guests are welcome to the commencement, too. If you plan to participate, you must register at the Bookstore by April 9. This will determine names in the program, seating, etc. Dress is academic cap and gown.

Participating St. Petersburg Campus seniors or graduates should assemble in the area between Bayboro Hall and the Poynier Library at 9:15 a.m. Both the processionional to seats and the conferring of degrees will each be by college. All candidates for Master's degrees will sit together.

honors week

In keeping with the purposes of a comprehensive university, the St. Petersburg Campus of the University of South Florida realizes the importance of acknowledging the accomplishments of its students. Academic achievement, the development of leadership qualities, and service to both school and community are considered as signs of the dedication needed for continued productivity in future endeavors.

Continued efforts will, no doubt, enrich their lives, as well as the lives of others, in years to come.

April 4 - 10 is Honors Week at USF. This issue of the Crow's Nest highlights Honors Week events and recognizes special award recipients.

photo exhibit

"Images of Work: Birmingham, 1894-1937," an exhibit of historical photographs, will be shown in the campus library during April. The exhibit, organized by historians Mitch Mainer and Mike Williams, is sponsored by the Alabama Folklife Association and the Archive of American Minority Cultures at the University of Alabama, and is funded by a grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities and the Committee for the Humanities in Alabama. Forty-six photos taken between the years 1894 and 1937 are included in the display.

lectures

Dr. Anne Gilmour-Bryson, Research Associate in History at Glendon College of York University (Toronto, Canada), will present two lectures at the St. Petersburg University of South Florida on Thursday, April 8. "The Trial of the Knights Templar" is scheduled for noon and "Computers and the Humanities" will be given at 7:30 PM. Both lectures are free and open to the public. The lectures are sponsored by the USF St. Petersburg Lecture Series Committee. Both will be given in the Conference Auditorium (SPE-130), Bayboro Hall.

snack bar

Student needed for part-time work at the campus Snack Bar (Bldg. B). Hours are 4-7 p.m. Supper included. Contact Wan-Ba at the Snack Bar or call 893-9138.
