Because they work cheap, an African diplomat hires four not-so-bright crooks to "recover" a diamond from a museum. They pull the job; they lose the stone. They steal it again—same story. Would you believe four times? HOT ROCK is an offbeat constant caper that offers suspense, satire, broad comedy and no violence with a refreshing amoral ending in which the amiable quartet not only outwits the police but a rival gang as well.

SAO and BETA ALPHA PSI BANQUET

The Student Accounting Organization and Beta Alpha Psi of the University of South Florida cordially invite you to attend our Annual Spring Banquet Friday, May 21, 1976.

The banquet will be held at the Host International Hotel located at the Tampa International Airport. Parking facilities are available by following the red signs to the hotel entrance. Activities will begin with a social hour at 7:00 p.m., dinner at 8:15, and our program at 9:15. Music will be provided and will continue until 1:00 a.m.

We are delighted to have as our guest speaker this year, David Russ, Director of Community Relations for the Tampa Bay Rowdies. A few Rowdies, if not on tour, will also be with us, and several tickets to Rowdies' games will be given away.

The banquet provides an opportunity for students, faculty and local practitioners from public accounting, industry and government to become acquainted on a social basis. All proceeds of the banquet are donated to a scholarship fund to help accounting students who have potential but would be unable to continue their education without financial assistance.

The price of the banquet will be $30 per couple or $15 per person. (Students and their friends only $8 !) Please contact Student Activities Office for reservation details. All checks should be made payable to the S.A.O. Scholarship Fund.

In recent years we have had as many as 300 people attend our banquet, and this year's banquet promises to be the biggest and best ever. We look forward to seeing you.
Many thanks to the 48 members of the USF/St. Pete Campus Community who gave blood during the Quarter II Blood Drive. (You can continue to give by stopping in at any local blood bank.)
It has been the policy of the St. Petersburg Campus library to have no fines for the regular circulating books (those not on Reserve or on Reference) until approximately the last two weeks of the quarter. This policy was a good one and one which worked well as long as the campus was small. Now that the student body has increased in size, it has become necessary to instigate a more formal - and stiffer - fines policy.

Beginning June 1 the following procedures will be observed:

1. ALL circulating books will be checked out for a period of 2 weeks. In most cases books may be renewed ONE TIME. The due date is stamped on the slip in the back of each book, and the book is to be returned on or before that date.

2. Should the borrower fail to return a book when due, a fine of 25¢ per day will be charged on each book. It will be the policy of the library to excuse a fine of less than $1.00, and the maximum fine assessed per book will be $10.00.

3. Fines for Reserved materials will continue to be the same as they have been:
   - Overnight material: $0.50 per hour
   - All other material: $0.50 per day

A bookdrop is located just outside the front door of Building A. Books may be returned in the bookdrop whenever the library is closed.

USF STUDENT JURIED ART COMPETITION

The first annual University of South Florida Student Juried Art Competition and Exhibition will be held from May 28 to July 22 in the Tampa Bay Art Center on North Boulevard, Tampa.

The juried competition is open to any student currently enrolled at USF or its regional campuses. Twenty-two awards totaling $3,000 will be made, including a Best of Show prize of $500.

The competition is directed by the USF art department with support from the Florida Center for the Arts, and sponsored by the Fine Arts
Forum and the Student Advisory Committee. The purpose of the exhibition is to display and reward the creative efforts of student artists and to initiate an annual, competitive, university-wide exhibition of high calibre and a professional level of achievement.

Recent work in any media is eligible, including painting, graphics, drawing, sculpture, ceramics, photography, film or mixed media. There is no size stipulation and no entry fee, but each painting, drawing, print or photograph must be suitably mounted under glass or Plexiglas, with frame adequate to support the work when hung, and with screw eyes and wire or other hanging devices, as stipulated in the entry rules.

Each artist may submit three entries, but is eligible to receive only one award. All entries will be inspected by a qualified, professional juror of national reputation, and will be judged together regardless of media or style.

Entries and entry blanks should be submitted together on May 11-12 between 8:30 a.m. and 5 p.m. at the Tampa Bay Art Center, 320 North Boulevard, Tampa. Works must be hand-delivered. Judging will take place May 13 and 14 and the exhibition will open May 28.

Entry blanks are available on posters announcing the competition, or from Bob Gelinas, Chairman, Exhibition Committee, USF Art Dept. FAH 110, University of South Florida 33620. Any questions regarding this exhibition should be directed to the art department at 974-2360.

BLOOD DRIVE...

Many thanks to the 48 members of the USF/St. Pete Campus Community who gave blood during the Quarter II Blood Drive. (You can continue to give by stopping in at any local blood bank...)

GRE PREP CLASSES

A course designed to prepare students for the verbal sections of the Graduate Record Examinations will be offered by the Continuing Education Office of the St. Petersburg Campus of the University of South Florida during this semester and, if registration permits, during the summer semester.

The course, "Development of Verbal Comprehension for the Graduate Record Examinations," will meet each Tuesday from 7 to 10 beginning April 20 and ending June 8. The summer semester course meets June 22 through Aug. 10.

Elements of the course include vocabulary development, synonyms and antonyms, sentence completion, and the interpretation of graphs, diagrams and descriptive data. Fee for the course is $40. For presently enrolled USF students, the fee is $30.

Classes will be taught by Carolyn Coolidge, who received her BA from Hunter College, and her MA from Teachers College of Columbia University. Following additional graduate study at Adelphi University, C.W. Post College, and New York University, she taught English at Nassau College on L.I., and at the secondary level. Mrs. Coolidge has just completed the teaching of the above course at the Sarasota Campus of the University of South Florida during the January to March semester.

If you wish to enroll in either of these courses, please sign up in the Activities Office.

CONTACT ADMISSIONS OFFICE for info regarding GRE TESTS.

MUSEUM OF FINE ARTS...ST. PETE

Osian Ellis, outstanding Welsh harpist, will perform in a program of harp music and songs at the Museum of Fine Arts, Saturday, May 1, at 8:30 p.m.

For the Museum program, Mr. Ellis has chosen harp music by Handel, Bach, Faure; plus Benjamin Britten's "Harp Suite in C Major" which the author composed and dedicated to Ellis in 1969. In addition, Ellis will sing Welsh and English folk songs and will describe intricate aspects of the harp.

Mr. Ellis is not entirely new to Florida. He has performed as soloist at Van Wezel Auditorium in Sarasota; and in 1966, as a member of the London Symphony Orchestra, he played in the International Music Festival at Daytona Beach. It was here that Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Jones met and became friends of the artist. Mrs. Jones is sponsoring Mr. Ellis' performance in memory of her husband.

Osian Ellis has brought the harp into great international prominence with his broadcasts and recitals, television appearances, concerto performances and many records. His file "The Harp" was awarded a prize at the Paris Film Festival.

Born and brought up in North Wales,
Mr. Ellis has sung and played musical instruments all his life.

Tickets are $3.25 for members, $4.25 for non-members. A limited number of $1.00 student tickets are available.
