USF St. Petersburg's growth is evident with the building of Residence Hall One, the 5th Avenue Parking Facility and the opening of Barnes & Noble USF St. Petersburg, but most importantly it is evident in the classroom.

Student credit hour registration totaled 37,552 this spring, up 13 percent over last spring's 33,097.

"It's exciting to see our campus gaining recognition and attracting new students," said V. Mark Durand, regional vice chancellor for Academic Affairs. "We couldn't have accomplished this level of success without our faculty and staff who have worked hard to make USF St. Petersburg a challenging and rewarding university experience."

Spring SCH is at an all-time high, rebounding from a drop in SCH that occurred in spring 2005 from the previous year.
