LIBRARY INFORMATION

Beginning June 22, 1981 the Nelson Poynter Memorial Library will institute a new loan period for students. Instead of checking out books for the traditional two-week period, students will be able to check them out for three weeks. (Materials will be subject to recall after the initial two weeks if needed by another person.) The new policy of an extended loan period is being implemented in the hopes of minimizing fines for students, and to facilitate the library's efforts to adapt to the new semester system.

Information concerning the semester conversion in terms of college work sheets, academic year calendar, question and answer sheet, undergraduate classes, etc., are now available at Poynter Library's reserve desk.

Those who are interested in knowing the implication of the change to semester are urged to visit the library.
