ECKERD COLLEGE LIBRARY - USF ST. PETE LIBRARY

DIRECT LENDING AGREEMENT

As of March 1, 1981, USF students, faculty, and staff will be able to borrow materials directly from Eckerd College Library. The agreement marks an important step in improving interlibrary cooperation in the Tampa Bay area. If successful, further expansion of the program may be possible. For this reason, it is particularly important that those who make use of the service understand clearly the rights and responsibilities they are assuming and abide by the rules and regulations set forth by each institution.

Whenever you wish to check out material from the Eckerd library, it will be mandatory that you present your currently validated USF ID card. Eckerd will determine how many items you may borrow and how long you may keep them. You will be held liable for any fines that should accumulate. These fines are payable directly to Eckerd, but if you should try to avoid them, be aware that USF will be contacted and the charges placed against your account. Any material borrowed from Eckerd library should be returned directly to that institution.

This program is of great potential value for both USF and Eckerd students. It will behoove us to see that it is not abused. We thank you in advance for your cooperation.

Eckerd College library is located at 5401 34th St. South. Their hours are:

CLASS OF 1981...

Are you planning on graduating soon?

December '80, March '81, June '81, August '81 graduates are cordially invited to GRADUATION CELEBRATION '81. This event is held each year to honor the graduating class of the St. Petersburg Campus. The festivities will be held at Tierra Verde on Friday, June 12 and include dinner, certificates to graduating seniors, awards, dancing and much more. For further details, contact the Activities Office SPE-112.

LIBRARY IS MOVING!

The library is moving! The new building is finished and the shelves have arrived. The move will be made during spring break, in order to cause the least inconvenience to students and faculty.

The library will be open for business at the old address all day Wednesday, March 18, the last day of the quarter. The library will be CLOSED March 19 through March 25, opening for business at the new building on Thursday, March 26.

In its efforts to adjust to the greater needs of its patrons, the library has made the following modifications:

1. The hours that the library is open have been changed and increased. As of February 1, the library has been open from 8:00 a.m. rather than 8:30 a.m. on weekdays. This has resulted in the library's being open a total of 77 hours per week.
2. The library has hired an additional professional librarian for weekend duty. Previously, only four hours on Saturday were served by a professional librarian. Currently, however, all weekend hours are covered by Ms. Natalie Watson, a graduate of USF Library School. She will be available for help with research projects and instruction in the use of library materials.

A special thanks goes to Dr. Raymond and Augusta Gerberich of St. Petersburg. The Gerberichs have volunteered their time and considerable expertise to the USF-St. Pete financial aid for the current school year (80-81).

Students wishing to be considered for financial aid for the summer quarter are requested to sign up in the Financial Aid Office (SPE 117) during the first week of Quarter III.

This sign-up period is open to those students who already have on file an application for USF Financial Aid for the current school year (80-81).

Congratulations...

The USF St. Petersburg Women's Organization recently awarded two Book Scholarships to undergraduate SHARON NOLTE (Sociology) and MARK FLOCK (Marine Science) graduate student. Each received a $50 award.

The Women's Organization will sponsor a used book sale in Quarter III to raise money for future book scholarships.
library. In appreciation for their efforts, the library has designated them honorary staff members.

The Gerberichs' experience has come from many years of study and teaching in this country and abroad. Dr. Gerberich received his Ph.D. from the University of Iowa, taught at numerous prestigious universities, and is Professor Emeritus of Education at the University of Connecticut. He has authored several books on educational and psychological tests and measurement and is a former high school principal. Among numerous honorary memberships, Dr. Gerberich has been a member of Connecticut Academy of Arts and Sciences, Fellow of the American Psychological Association, member and president of the National Council on Measurement in Education. Mrs. Gerberich studied in Mexico, Austria, and Switzerland, and also taught high school. Please welcome Dr. and Mrs. Gerberich to the St. Petersburg Campus family.

Palisades Theatre presents "The Killing of Sister George"

For six years, June Buckridge has portrayed that lovable, helpful "brick" of a nurse, Sister George, on the BBC soap opera, "Applehurst." But life hasn't been easy for June. She's drinking again and the BBC studios are worried about Sister George's drop in the popularity ratings. The BBC producers feel it's time for THE KILLING OF SISTER GEORGE.

Frank Marcus' comedy, THE KILLING OF SISTER GEORGE runs through March 21, Wednesdays through Saturdays at 8 p.m. with 2 p.m. matinees on Wednesdays and Saturdays at 169 Central Ave. Discount tickets may be purchased at the Activities Office.

THE KILLING OF SISTER GEORGE was first presented by the Bristol Old Vic at the Theatre Royal, Bristol, England, and subsequently presented at the Duke of York's Theatre, London, on June 17, 1965. On October 5, 1966 the production opened in New York at the Belasco Theatre and later was made into a major motion picture starring Beryl Reid and Susannah York.

Palisades' production of THE KILLING OF SISTER GEORGE is directed by Ms. Gale Book, who earlier this season directed the opening play, THE WATER ENGINE. Scenic design is by resident designer Mark Hendren with lighting design by Charles Medlin.

PINNING CEREMONY HONORS USF-ST.PETE NURSING GRADS

Forty-five members of the Nursing Student Association (NSA) of the College of Nursing of the University of South Florida at St. Petersburg are planning a ceremony and reception at the St. Petersburg Women's Club on March 17 at 7:00 p.m. At this time they will receive the College of Nursing pin in recognition of their having completed the requirements for the Bachelor of Science Degree in Nursing. These are Registered Nurses who have returned to the University of South Florida to further their professional nursing education at the university level.

All 45 Registered Nurses have been employed in the local community since completing their initial education in nursing at the Associate Degree or diploma level and will receive their academic degree from the University of South Florida this year.

For the most part, these students work full time in nursing, maintain their family relationships and have completed all the degree requirements for the nursing major on the St. Pete Campus.

The faculty and staff who will present the pins are Marilyn S. Bach, Margaret A. Dunn, Ed.D. and Diana G. French, RN, MSN, who will deliver the address, "Recommitment to Nursing", to the students and guests.

SOVIETS THINK AMERICANS ARE ENSLAVED SAYS USF PROFESSOR RETURNED FROM USSR
--USF Information Services

People in the Soviet Union believe that they are free and Americans are enslaved, according to Dr. John M. Belohlavek, associate professor of history at the University of South Florida.

Belohlavek has recently returned from a Fulbright appointment in the Soviet Union. He spent five months in the U.S.S.R. Most of that time was spent not in Moscow or Leningrad, but in Baku, a port city on the Caspian Sea in the Soviet Republic of Azerbaijan.

"They believe that they are free and we are enslaved," said Belohlavek during a talk on "Soviet Life" sponsored by the USF sociology department. "They wonder when we are going to throw off the shackles. 'When is the revolution coming?' they ask, 'when is the revolution coming?'"

One reason for the apparent disagreement about who is "enslaved" and who is "free" is the fact that Americans and Soviets don't share the same definition of the now familiar term "human rights."

"We consider human rights to be intellectual phenomena, freedom of the press, etc.," said Belohlavek. "Soviets say 'how about the right to eat, the right to have a place to live, the right to medical care?""

Would Soviets trade their "rights" for ours? Some would. But by no means the majority of those with whom Belohlavek spoke. "They'd rather have the basics and work toward the other," Belohlavek said.

The history professor shared these observations about "Soviet Life" with those attending the lecture.

FOOD--The monotony was incredible...All the restaurants serve the same thing, basically three things...There are no supermarkets. Soviets shop for food in specialty stores or in open markets which can be both delightful and frustrating...Shoppers may fight for eggs one day, leave eggs unpurchased the next...There are shortages of some items, notably meat, eggs, cheese and butter. But the Soviets are used to their system. They know how to anticipate the market...Shoppers depend on local markets. Variety is limited to what is produced locally...Kash 'N Karry and Publix would blow them away.

DRINK--Don't drink the water outside Moscow...Soviets seem to prefer alcoholic beverages anyway. There is not much in the way of entertainment in their country, so Soviets do what you might expect them to do—they drink...There is no ice. There are no mixers. Anything you drink, you drink straight...A Soviet couple is just as likely to order a bottle of Vodka as a bottle of wine with dinner. They will drink the whole bottle...There are no more drunks on the streets in the Soviet Union than you would expect to see anywhere else...

Certainly, there are an awful lot of people who are drunk on the job.

WORK--Soviets work six days a week.

RETIREMENT--Soviets may retire in their mid-fifties and collect a pension which is a percentage of their previous income.

RELIGION--There is religion in the Soviet Union. It is alive, widespread, and not doing so badly, thank you.

PATRIOTISM--The Soviets are incredibly patriotic. They have and they will continue to make whatever sacrifices are necessary to defend their country...If one thing will bring the Soviets together it is fear of the Americans...If they regard Ronald Reagan as a threat, that will only unite them.

POLITICS--There is a certain amount of local control, local autonomy, local influence.

GEOGRAPHY & CULTURE--Russia is only one of 15 republics that make up the Soviet Union. It is not the name of the entire country. Georgians, Armenians, etc. are not Russians. They are Soviets. They have their own regional values, standards and customs. They are proud of their ethnic and cultural differences.

Every Friday in March The Plaza will feature live jazz in the courtyard from 12:30 until 3:30 PM. Jimmie Taylor's Southland Jazz Band will provide the music while Cafe Plaza and Fonte's will offer tasty box lunches for jazz fans and visitors who want to sit in the sunshine and listen to good music while taking a break from office routine or shopping.

An hour after the courtyard concert ends—at 4:30 PM—the band will move upstairs to Le Cafe Plaza for a two-hour Happy Hour concert in L'Escapade.

The Friday jazz concerts are in addition to the usual Saturday noon-time Happenings in the Plaza courtyard. These will continue as usual through March, featuring dancers, choral groups, art exhibits and demonstrations and many other events which have made The Plaza a top weekend attraction in downtown St. Petersburg.
