FILMS...QUARTER III

The Student Activities Office staff is currently preparing the Film Series for Quarter III. PLEASE LET US KNOW WHAT FILMS YOU ARE INTERESTED IN SEEING FREE ON THE ST. PETERSBURG CAMPUS. Come by the office in the North Lounge of Building B, or call 898-7411, ext. 253, or talk to the film series attendant. Thanks.

FRIDAY EVENING FILM SERIES presents

FREE LOVERS AND OTHER STRANGERS

SOMETHING FOR YOUR SWEETHEART!

A special film just for Valentine's day is love New York style from the comedy team of Renee Taylor and Joseph Bologna.

ACADEMY AWARD WINNING SONG:

"For All We Know"

CAST:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Gig Young</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Anne Jackson</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Richard Castellano</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Michael Brandon</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bonnie Bedelia</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Anne Meara</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Harry Guardino</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

AUDITORIUM 8 PM
COLOR 1972  Rated: PG
FEBRUARY 15

Two lovers start a comic chain-reaction when they finally decide to get married after a year of living together. Relatives and friends furiously start to re-evaluate their lives, mates and mistresses, and to make decisions about the future during the hectic pre-nuptial period. The boy's father decides after thirty years that his wife's cooking is sub-standard; the girl's sister starts to question her mate's virility; the boy's brother decides to get a divorce; a friend tries to get a girl; and the girl's father is plagued by a mistress who is his wife's best friend. Comic blackouts and razor-sharp dialogue are well combined by the riotous direction of Cy Howard.

THE PING-PONG TOURNAMENT

Men and women's combined singles table tennis tournament will begin Monday. FIRST PRIZE: FIVE GALLONS OF GASOLINE. Sign up immediately in the Activities Office.

TRANSPORTATION

NO GAS•ENERGY CRISIS•HELP JOIN A CAR Pool

The Activities Office is currently assembling car pools for QUARTER III. Don't delay—contact the Activities Office today. Submit your name, address and phone number plus your destinations (St. Pete or Tampa campus, day or night, etc.) to the Financial Aid office and one will be sent by mail as soon as forms are received.

EDUCATION MAJOR

Pinellas County Schools interviews are being held on the St. Pete campus Feb. 25. Sign up now for your appointment, Room 115 in two days.

DIETS ARE FOR PEOPLE WHO ARE THICK AND TIRED OF IT.
VAUDEVILLE VARIETIES

SAT. FEB.16
8:00 PM

at BAYFRONT CENTER

sponsored by the Mental Health Ass’n of Pinellas County

Donation: $3, $4, $5

Volunteers are needed at the Neighborly Center, Inc. at 1450-4th Street S. to assist in programs for the elderly. There is also a need for volunteer office help—light typing, mimeographing, etc. Please call 896-2165 or stop in the Center for a visit.

Astronaut Buzz Aldrin will be there!

HELP NEEDED—NEIGHBORLY CENTER

Volunteers are needed at the Neighborly Center, Inc. at 1450-4th Street S. to assist in programs for the elderly. There is also a need for volunteer office help—light typing, mimeographing, etc. Please call 896-2165 or stop in the Center for a visit.

Hours would be any time between 9 A.M. to 4 P.M. on weekdays. For further information about the program, you may also contact USF student Jim Eastwood at 525-7303.

RECYCLE PAPER!

A LARGE YELLOW CONTAINER HAS BEEN PLACED IN THE PARKING LOT ON THE NORTH SIDE OF BUILDING B.

PLEASE BRING ALL YOUR PAPERS FROM HOME AND DEPOSIT THEM IN THE CONTAINER. HELP CONSERVE OUR FORESTS. THANKS.

FINANCE INTERVIEWS!

Interested in a career in the field of finance? Interviews being held at the St. Pete Campus by J. Sherwood White and Associates for sales and administrative positions in the area of financial planning work.

Sign up now in Room 115, Bldg. B. All majors welcome for this interview.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES PRESENTS A BUS TRIP TO SARASOTA!

STATE THEATRE COMPANY

PRODUCTION OF

"THE DEVIL'S GENERAL"

by Carl Zuckmayer

A serious and compelling drama of enormous historical interest by a noted German playwright agonized over the problem of guilt through passivity in the face of evil. A sardonic portrait of Nazi Germany, it centers on the dilemma of a Luftwaffe general (a character inspired by real-life General Udet) who must choose between his moral duty to mankind and the arbitrary duty imposed on him by his nation. General Harras, a dashing daredevil, beloved by women, his soldiers, and friends, bears deep inner opposition to Hitler's Third Reich—but he serves it, until brought to the realization that he has sworn fealty to the forces of evil and become a mercenary of the Devil.

BUS TRIP TO SARASOTA FROM ST. PETE CAMPUS

MARCH 6*

Leave St. Pete Campus 5PM. Return about 11:45 P.M.

TICKETS ON SALE NOW IN THE ACTIVITIES OFFICE. LIMITED SUPPLY!

Tickets are $5.50 each; full-fees paying students may use their subsidy and purchase tickets for AS LOW AS $1.00

Price includes bus and best seats in the house.
FEEDBACK is an open forum designed for the expression of all forms of thought and creativity. Students, faculty, and staff may submit contributions on any topic, in any form, to the CROW'S NEST at the Activities Office in the North Lounge of Building B.

That day was when Sonia Forseth's language arts class at the University of South Florida was gently prodded into presenting a play, of sorts, to instill creative dramatics into the hearts of the University students and also, into the hearts of the elementary school students for whom the play was to be given.

Having always been a class clown at heart, I decided, then and there to major in buffoonery. I wanted to play the part of Cinderella. After all, I'm an ex-G.I., electrician, salesman, and self-employed businessman. Isn't this a natural calling? Why should I let my 240 lb., 77” tall gregarious frame be stereotyped forever? I mean that men should be liberated too. Have you ever noticed that females always get the part of the beautiful young maiden?

Making the commitment was easy. Selecting a wardrobe was, euphemistically speaking, rather difficult. I went to fourteen different stores looking for a pair of sequined pantyhose. I did want to be beautiful. The store clerks wouldn't stop laughing long enough to even look for a pair. I had to settle for an obnoxious pair of white hose—less garter belt.

I knew from the onstart that finding an appropriate dress would be a problem. Being a University student, I couldn't afford a size 20 formal created by Bill Blass. I needed either Omar the tent maker, or a rather large girl who attended a junior-senior prom. The donor of the dress wishes to maintain her anonymity. It took several hours to cut the darts out of the formal, but it was worth it. The formal was blue, and I just love blue. Wigs pose no problem. I borrowed two. One wig was classified as "before the ball", and the other as "at the ball". Now trying to locate a pair of size 13 ballroom slippers is a different story altogether. I had to settle for a pair of bedroom slippers on which I attached two large pom-pom bows. They were cute—not petite.

While looking at my adornment in the mirror, I started to cry. The reason escapes me at the present, but it might have been because the hairs on my legs were crying for their independence.

The day of the play arrived. Much sooner than I had anticipated. May I add—much much sooner. I looked at the handsome Prince. She was smiling. I looked at the lily-white fairy godmother with the huge wings. Believe me—she was black and beautiful. The wicked step-sisters and the wicked step-mother are, in actuality, quite attractive. The children were as receptive an audience as you could possibly hope for. In our particular play, you could have stood in front of them for twenty minutes or better and just listened to them laugh. A cacophony of children's laughter is, probably, the most beautiful sound God allowed upon this earth of ours.

We, no pun intended, had a ball.

This might have been the ending of a slightly unusual story. But it is not. For I am back at Maximo school this term, where I am greeted each day with inquisitive glances and interrogative statements such as, "I know you. You're Cinderella!" I hear this each and every day of my interning life.

Let me alleviate any anxieties you may have in fostering creative drama wherever you are. Since my debut as Cinderella, I have established a rapport with the children that is short of fantastic. When my supervising teacher announces the children who will be with me for the day, there is a round of applause. I receive notes from the children every day. Some want to have a play. Others want me to tell them about playing Cinderella. Of course, one girl gave me a note this past week which read as follows: "I wish your fair-godmother hadn't changed you back to yourself." They call me Mr. McCoy at school, but in their hearts, and mine, we know I am Cinderella. If only the staff would quit calling me Cindy!
The Go d G-. _

THE GOLD RUSH
CHARLIE CHAPIN
Friday Film Series

Men who are afraid of being ruined by success should get a job with the weather bureau.

A friend is one who takes you to dinner, even though you are non-deductible.

One thing about baldness, it's neat.

Poor old Valentine, a third century priest who was clubbed and beheaded on February 14th, in the year 270, would certainly be surprised to find himself a lovers' saint. Nobody actually knows why lovers exchange their sentimental greetings on this particular day, but there is one plausible theory: that the Church used the day of St. Valentine's martyrdom in an attempt to Christianize the old Roman Lupercalia, a pagan festival held around the middle of February. Part of the ceremony consisted of putting girls' names in a box and letting the boys draw them out. This, supposedly, paired off couples for a whole year—until the next Lupercalia.

Following its usual strategy of retaining a pagan ceremony but changing its meaning, the Church substituted saints' names for girls' names. The participant was supposed to model his life during the ensuing year after the life of the saint whose name he drew. However, the old pagan custom gradually worked its way back and by the sixteenth century, the girls had regained possession of the name-box. It was the introduction of inexpensive postage that brought about the kind of popularity to patch up lovers' quarrels. This is probably the easiest assignment ever given to any saint. Also for some reason he is invoked against epilepsy, plague, and fainting diseases.
FILMS . . . QUARTER III

The Student Activities Office staff is currently preparing the Film Series for Quarter III. PLEASE LET US KNOW WHAT FILMS YOU ARE INTERESTED IN SEEING FREE ON THE ST. PETE CAMPUS. Come by the office in the North Lounge of Building B, or call 898-7411, ext. 253, or talk to the film series attendant. Thanks.

FRIDAY EVENING FILM SERIES presents

FREE

LOVERS AND OTHER STRANGERS

SOMETHING FOR YOUR SWEETHEART!
A special film just for Valentine's day is love New York style from the comedy team of Renee Taylor and Joseph Bologna.

ACADEMY AWARD WINNING SONG: "For All We Know"

CAST: Gig Young Ann Jackson Richard Castellano Michael Brandon Bonnie Bedelia Anne Meara Harry Guardino

AUDITORIUM 8 PM COLOR 1972 Rated: PG FEBRUARY 15

Two lovers start a comic chain-reaction when they finally decide to get married after a year of living together. Relatives and friends furiously start to reevaluate their lives, mates and mistresses, and to make decisions about the future during the hectic pre-nuptial period. The boy's father decides after thirty years that his wife's cooking is sub-standard; the girl's sister starts to question her mate's virility; the boy's brother decides to get a divorce; a friend tries to get a girl; and the girl's father is plagued by a mistress who is his wife's best friend. Comic blackouts and razor-sharp dialogue are well combined by the riotous direction of Cy Howard.

BASH-KETBALL

Game

The Pinellas County Alumni Association is sponsoring a BASH-KETBALL game on Monday, Feb. 11. The game will feature USF vs. Dayton University at the Bayfront Center at 7:30 P.M. A post-game reception will follow USF vs. DAYTON at The Pier. Total cost is $3.50 which includes a reserved seat game ticket. (Cash Bar is $1.00 per drink.) There'll be hot and cold hors d'oeuvres and Bayfront Center chips—all you want to eat.
Tickets available in Activities Office.

Transportation

NO GAS*ENERGY CRISIS*HELP
JOIN A CAR POOL

The Activities Office is currently assembling information concerning students wishing to form car pools for QUARTER III. Don't delay—contact the Activities Office today. Submit your name, address and phone number plus your destinations
(St. Pete or Tampa campus, day or night, etc.).
Local city transit information is also available.

PING-PONG TOURNAMENT

Men and women's combined singles table tennis tournament will begin Monday. FIRST PRIZE:
FIVE GALLONS OF GASOLINE. Sign up immediately in the Activities Office.

EARLY REGISTRATION?
YOU MISSED IT!
Next Registration: MARCH 20

FINANCIAL AID

Planning on applying for financial aid for 74-75 school year? Deadline for these applications is March 1. Forms available in Room 115, Bldg. B.
Florida Student Assistance
Grant forms are not yet on hand, but if you are applying, please leave your name and address in the Financial Aid office and one will be sent by mail as soon as forms are received.

EDUCATION*MAJORS

Pinellas County Schools interviews are being held on the St. Pete campus Feb. 25.
Sign up now for your appointment, Room 115 in Bldg. B.

DIETS ARE FOR PEOPLE WHO ARE THICK AND TIRED OF IT.

CROW'S NEST

* SINGIN'
  * DANCIN'
  * SLAPSTICK
  COMEDY
  * RAGTIME JAZZ
  * BARBERSHOP QUARTET
  * "BLACKOUTS"
  * "CROSSES"
and THE PRIDE OF PINELLAS
* SWEET ADELINE CHORUS

VAUDEVILLE
VARIETIES
SAT.
FEB. 16
8:00 PM

at BAYFRONT CENTER

sponsored by the Mental Health Ass'n of Pinellas County

Donation: $3, $4, $5

Astronaut Buzz Aldrin will be there!

RECYCLE PAPER!

A LARGE YELLOW CONTAINER HAS BEEN PLACED IN THE PARKING LOT ON THE NORTH SIDE OF BUILDING B.

PLEASE BRING ALL YOUR PAPERS FROM HOME AND DEPOSIT THEM IN THE CONTAINER.
HELP CONSERVE OUR FORESTS. THANKS.

FINANCE INTERVIEWS!

Interested in a career in the field of finance? Interviews being held at the St. Pete Campus by J. Sherwood White and Associates for sales and administrative positions in the area of financial planning work.
Sign up now in Room 115, Bldg. B. All majors welcome for this interview.

HELP NEEDED-
NEIGHBORLY CENTER

Volunteers are needed at the Neighborly
Center, Inc. at 1450-4th Street S. to assist in programs for the elderly. There is also a need for volunteer office help - light typing, mimeographing, etc. Please call
896-2165 or stop in the Center for a visit. Hours would be any time between 9 A.M. to 4 P.M. on weekdays. For further information about the program, you may also contact USF student Jim Eastwood at 525-7303.

Bigamy is the only crime on the books where two rites make a wrong.

CROW’S NEST

STUDENT ACTIVITIES PRESENTS A BUS TRIP TO SARASOTA!

ASOLO STATE THEATRE COMPANY PRODUCTION OF “THE DEVIL’S GENERAL” by Carl Zuckmayer

A serious and compelling drama of enormous historical interest by a noted German playwright agonized over the problem of guilt through passivity in the face of evil. A sardonic portrait of Nazi Germany, it centers on the dilemma of a Luftwaffe general (a character inspired by real-life General Udet) who must choose between his moral duty to mankind and the arbitrary duty imposed on him by his nation. General Harras, a dashing daredevil, beloved by women, his soldiers, and friends, bears deep inner opposition to Hitler’s Third Reich—yet he serves it, until brought to the realization that he has sworn fealty to the forces of evil and become a mercenary of the Devil.

BUS TRIP TO SARASOTA FROM ST. PETE CAMPUS

MARCH 6

Leave St. Pete Campus 5 P.M. Return about 11:45 P.M.

Tickets on sale now in the Activities Office. Limited supply! Tickets are $5.50 each; full-fees paying students may use their subsidy and purchase tickets for as low as $1.00. Price includes bus and best seats in the house.

CROW’S NEST

FEEDBACK haunted by Cinderella
WE WANT TO HEAR FROM YOU!

FEEDBACK is an open forum designed for the expression of all forms of thought and creativity. Students, faculty, and staff may submit contributions on any topic, in any form, to the CROW’S NEST at the Activities Office in the North Lounge of Building B.

Unusual you say? Do you think Cinderella is a sweet pretty thing that lives only in fairy tales? Wrong! Cinderella is a 32 year old man who interns daily at Maximo Elementary School.

It all started last quarter. An aypical language arts class was transformed into a non-typical one in the course of a day. That day was when Sonia Forsyth’s language arts class at the University of South Florida was gently prodded into presenting a play, of sorts, to instill creative dramatics into the hearts of the University students and also, into the hearts of the elementary school students for whom the play was to be given.

Having always been a class clown at heart, I decided, then and there, to major in buffoonery. I wanted to play the part of Cinderella. After all, I’m an ex-G.I., electrician, salesman, and self-employed businessman. Isn’t this a natural calling? Why should I let my 240 lb., 77” tall gregarious frame be stereotyped forever? I mean that men should be liberated too. Have you ever noticed that females always get the part of the beautiful young maiden?

Making the commitment was easy. Selecting a wardrobe was, euphemistically speaking, rather difficult. I went to fourteen different stores looking for a pair of sequined pantyhose. I did want to be beautiful. The store clerks wouldn’t stop laughing long enough to even look for a pair. I had to settle for an obnoxious pair of white hose—less garter belt.

I knew from the onstart that finding an appropriate dress would be a problem. Being a University student, I couldn’t afford a size 20 formal created by Bill Blass. I needed either Omar the tent maker, or a rather large girl who attended a junior-senior prom. The donor of the dress wishes to maintain her anonymity. It took several hours to cut the darts out of the formal, but it was worth it. The formal was blue, and I just love blue. Wigs pose no problem. I borrowed two. One wig I classified as “before the ball,” and the other as “at the ball.” Now trying to locate a pair of size 13 ballroom slippers is a different story altogether. I had to settle for a pair of bedroom slippers on which I attached two large pom-pom bows. They were cute—not petite.

While looking at my adornment in the mirror, I started to cry. The reason escapes me at the present, but it might have been because the hairs on my legs were crying for their independence.

The day of the play arrived. Much sooner than I had anticipated. May I add—much much sooner. I looked at the handsome Prince. She was smiling. I looked at the lily-white fairy godmother with the huge wings. Believe me—she was black and beautiful. The wicked step-sisters and the wicked step-mother are, in actuality, quite attractive. The children were as receptive an audience as you could possibly hope for. In our particular play, you could have stood in front of them for twenty minutes or better and just listened to them laugh. A cacophony of children’s laughter is, probably, the most beautiful sound God allowed upon this earth of ours. We, no pun intended, had a ball.
This might have been the ending of a slightly unusual story. But it is not. For I am back at Maximo school this term, where I am greeted each day with inquisitive glances and interrogative statements such as, “I know you. You’re Cinderella!” I hear this each and every day of my interning life.

Let me alleviate any anxieties you may have in fostering creative drama wherever you are. Since my debut as Cinderella, I have established a rapport with the children that is short of fantastic. When my supervising teacher announces the children who will be with me for the day, there is a round of applause. I receive notes from the children every day. Some want to have a play. Others want me to tell them about playing Cinderella. Of course, one girl gave me a note this past week which read as follows: “I wish your fair godmother hadn’t changed you back to yourself.” They call me Mr. McCoy at school, but in their hearts, and mine, we know I am Cinderella. If only the staff would quit calling me Cindy!

CROW’S NEST

Coming...

“The Gold Rush”
CHARLIE CHAPLIN
Friday Film Series

Men who are afraid of being ruined by success should get a job with the weather bureau.

A friend is one who takes you to dinner, even though you are non-deductible.

One thing about baldness, it’s neat.

happy valentine’s day

VALENTINE’S DAY Article from ----> DAYS AND CUSTOMS
OF ALL FAITHS by
Rev. Howard V. Harper
D.D.

CAMPUS CALENDAR
VALENTINE’S DAY--FEB. 14

Poor old Valentine, a third century priest who was clubbed
Page 6
and beheaded on February 14th, in the year 270, would certainly be surprised to find himself a lovers' saint. Nobody actually knows why lovers exchange their sentimental greetings on this particular day, but there is one plausible theory: that the Church used the day of St. Valentine's martyrdom in an attempt to Christianize the old Roman Lupercalia, a pagan festival held around the middle of February. Part of the ceremony consisted of putting girls' names in a box and letting the boys draw them out. This, supposedly, paired off couples for a whole year—until the next Lupercalia.

Following its usual strategy of retaining a pagan ceremony but changing its meaning, the Church substituted saints' names for girls' names. The participant was supposed to model his life during the ensuing year after the life of the saint whose name he drew. However, the old pagan custom gradually worked its way back and by the sixteenth century, the girls had regained possession of the name-box. It was the introduction of inexpensive postage that brought about the kind of St. Valentine's Day we now know. Before that time, everything had to be left to the "drawing." But low postal rates made it possible for the poorest lad to by-pass the drawing and let his real choice know how he felt about her. And, of course, there was a certain amount of privacy about it, which helped those who were of a shy nature.

Some say there were two saints named Valentine—some even say there were three. All were martyrs—all are associated with February 14th. St. Valentine, or perhaps "Saints" Valentine, is patron of engaged couples and all who wish to marry. Legend says that St. Valentine has the power to patch up lovers' quarrels. This is probably the easiest assignment ever given to any saint. Also for some reason he is invoked against epilepsy, plague, and fainting diseases.

CROW'S NEST

Annual Brotherhood Month Observance
Sponsored by
THE GREATER ST. PETERSBURG COUNCIL
ON HUMAN RELATIONS
SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 1974
At Gibbs Senior High School
3181 - 9th Avenue South
Guest Speaker
ELIZABETH DUNCAN KOONTZ
Coordinator of Nutrition Programs
N. C. Department of Human Resources
Refreshments Served After Meeting
TIME 3:00 P.M. ADMISSION -- FREE

AMERICAN NATURAL HYGIENE SOCIETY
HEALTH AND NATURAL LIVING SEMINAR

ECKERD COLLEGE FEB. 23, 1974
PHOTO BUFFS

If you are interested in learning how to develop negatives and print film, please contact the Activities Office.

Lessons for beginners and refreshers for advanced photographers will be available on campus FREE this Quarter.

smile
it's mid-term time!

congrats...

CHRIS GILMAN
VICTOR OF THE PING-PONG MATCH OF THE CENTURY!

JERRI HUMPHREY...
PLEASE NOTE LEFT HAND, RING FINGER.
BEST WISHES.

FOR SALE

Water bed, single with liner, with walnut frame. Must sell, $25. Laurie, 898-7411, 5-10 PM on Mon., Tues., Thurs., nights.

1967 Volkswagen Karmen Ghia $950. Call Tampa 834-6511 or see Patrolman Guest at the Security Office.

ROOMMATE WANTED

Roommate wanted to share pvt. home, Tyrone area. Young woman, student or career-minded. $70 mo. and share utilities. CALL 344-3242 before 8:30 AM or 894-1111, ext. 645 (ask for bj and leave a message).

APARTMENTS

1144-13th St. N. 4 room, 2 bedroom apartment, over garage, $110 per mo. plus utilities. Furnished. $50 deposit. Call 821-4855, Mary or Dan.