Our Salt Creek Art Works studio is opening its doors for its opening reception Friday, Feb. 27 from 6-9 pm for "Wet Paint" and "Figure it Out." Professor Lucy Karl and the drawing and painting students welcome visitors from USF St. Petersburg, as well as the general public.

The exhibits highlight new student work from Spring 2004 Intermediate Painting and Intermediate Drawing. Selected works from Beginning Painting and Beginning Drawing will also be featured. Students represent majors in business, criminology, geography, humanities, photography and psychology.

This opening happens in conjunction with the opening reception in the Main Galleries of "soft hard ware" mixed-media exhibition by artists Frank Strunk and David Williams.
