On this date at approximately 5:20PM a Poynter Library staff member reported a theft in progress, from the bike rack just east of the library's exit. It was reported that 2 juvenile black males were seen pulling on a bike, attempting to break the lock. Once they did break the lock, it appears they became aware they were observed and fled from the scene, leaving the bicycle behind. A check of the area did not develop any leads.

Officer Ewing investigated, case statues, closed.
