MUSEUM OF FINE ARTS—ST. PETERSBURG
FREIBURG BAROQUE SOLOISTS IN CONCERT

A program of eighteenth century pre-classical music will be featured Tuesday, April 5, at the Museum of Fine Arts, 255 Beach Drive North. "Clearly, this program by the Freiburg Baroque Soloists will be our outstanding presentation for the 1976-77 season," said Alan DuBois, Assistant Director of the Museum. The ensemble of winds, strings and harpsichord was organized in 1964 and has subsequently specialized in the music of J.S. Bach's sons. The St. Petersburg program will be broader in scope, to include Janitsch, J.S. Bach, his son, J.C.F. Bach, Haydn, Wendlind and Mozart. The concert will begin at 8:30 p.m. The group consists of five members playing the violin, viola da gamba, flute, oboe, violoncello and harpsichord in varying combinations. The exact number on stage at any one time depends upon the instrumental requirements of the particular work being performed. Although each musician in this group is a soloist, the ensemble concentrates on creating a musically homogeneous group rather than on displaying the unique talents of any one of its members.

Preceding the musical fare, Lee Malone, Director of the Museum, will present a twenty-minute illustrated overview of baroque art for an evening of integrated arts. His talk will begin promptly at 8 p.m.

Tickets may be purchased at the museum at $3.25 for members, $4.25 for non-members. A special student rate of $1.00 is "one of the best bargains in town," said Mr. DuBois.

PORCELAIN EXPERT TO LECTURE AT MUSEUM

David Sanctuary Howard will lecture on "China for the West" Sunday, April 3 at 3 p.m. at the Museum of Fine Arts, 255 Beach Drive North. Mr. Howard has travelled widely on every continent over the last twenty years, for most of the time as a businessman. However, after publication of his book, Chinese Armorial Porcelain, by Faber & Faber in 1974, he resigned his directorship of an educational publishing company and has devoted himself fully to antiques, particularly Chinese export porcelain and antiques with armory marks. Howard is the author of a number of articles on Chinese porcelain, and this is his eighth lecture tour in the United States. He has also appeared on national television. Later this year Sotheby-Parker-Bernet Publications will publish a major book on the entire field of Chinese export porcelain entitled "China for the West" co-authored by Mr. Howard and John Ayers, Keeper of the Far Eastern Department of the Victoria & Albert Museum, for which Nelson Rockefeller has written the foreword.

There is no charge for the lecture, and the public is invited to attend.

DEAN'S LIST
All students who believe they may have the necessary grade point for the Dean's Honor List are requested to check with Mrs. Hubner in the Student Affairs office as soon as possible to see if they are on the list for Quarter II. As students are no longer notified by mail if they are on the Dean's List, they will have to check in the Student Affairs Office each quarter to determine whether they are or are not on the list. At present there are tentative plans for a dinner in May, honoring those students who have appeared on the Dean's List during Quarter I and II.
