Graduation Celebration ‘77

As a graduate of USF/St. Petersburg (Quarter I, II, III, IV - December ’76 to August ’77) you are a special person! You deserve the best and that’s what we are going to provide you at "Graduation Celebration ’77". This gala evening will include dining, drinking, dancing and ceremony. And for graduates, it’s FREE!

The celebration will be held in the Grand Ballroom of the St. Petersburg Hilton Hotel (333 1st St. South) on the evening of June 10, 1977. Cocktail time is at 7:00 and dinner will begin at 7:30, followed by the speeches and award ceremony. (Cocktails will be $1.35 and beer will be $1.00).

The banquet dinner will feature chicken cordon bleu, chef’s salad, green beans almondine, baked potato, black walnut cake dessert, with rolls, butter and beverage. Wine may also be purchased for table service during the dinner. For those desiring it, a non-smoking section will also be available.

After dinner, the ceremonies will begin. These include presentation of certificates (not diplomas) to graduates, the senior awards, and an address by the guest speaker. Live music will be provided for your entertainment and dancing pleasure.

For your convenience, the Hilton Hotel is offering discount rates for rooms for graduates and guests. You may inquire at the Activities Office, 893-9129 to make these arrangements.

"Graduation Celebration '77" is free for graduates, but you must come to the Student Activities Office to pick up your free ticket. Faculty, staff and other guest tickets may be purchased for $5.00. The R.S.V.P. deadline for both guests and graduates is June 1.

If you know of any graduate who has not received notice of this event, please inform the Student Activities Office. Our mailing list is not complete at this time.

GRADUATION CELEBRATION COMMITTEE '77

ATTENTION: SAC Elections

Elections for Student Chairperson and five Student Member At Large positions will be conducted on Tuesday and Wednesday, May 17 and 18, 1977. All students are requested and urged to participate in these elections. Petitions and campaign regulations are available now in Student Activities office for all positions. If you are interested in Student Affairs but don't wish to run for election there are several methods you might care to follow. You could join one of the many Student Organizations on campus and possibly represent it at Student Affairs Committee meetings. There is no limit to number of Alternate Student At Large Members so you should look into qualifying as a SAC. Your presence is always welcome at any SAC meeting. Your ideas and questions are requested by the SAC, so please make an effort to attend as many meetings as you possibly can.

FOR YOUR Info...

Your skin is an incredibly complex structure of tiny, specialized parts. Just one square-inch of human skin is estimated to contain 20 blood vessels, 13 sensory points for cold, 78 for heat, 165 for pressure, 65 hairs and muscles, 100 glands secreting fatty matter, 650 sweat glands, 28 nerves, 1,300 nerve ends to record pain, and 19,300 sensory cells at the ends of nerve fibers.

Here's a doctor's prescription for the next time you come down with a nasty cold: Instead of spending a lot of money on medication, just relax and enjoy it. Dr. Burton A. Dudding, chairman of the University of Kansas Medical Center says, "They're an essential part of growth, maturation, and adaptive processes. So why not relax and enjoy a cold? Take whatever you like for it as long as it makes you feel better, since it will go away in a few days regardless of what you do." He suggested that the health profession should help educate the public to help medicate McMurphy for a chance at the softer life of a mental institution. But he gets more than he's bargained for, much more. He is committed to the care of Big Nurse--a full breasted, stiff-gaited tyrant who rules over her charges with chilling authority.

ACCOMMODATION LONDON...SUMMER '77

We would like to draw your attention to STUDENT ACCOMMODATION available in LONDON during the SUMMER 1977.

The accommodation available would be in the Eckerd College London Study Centre at 35 Gower Street, London, W.C.1. The house is centrally located, within easy walking distance of West End theatres, the British Museum, and major shopping districts.

The accommodation is in two and three-bedded rooms, with just a few single rooms also available at a slightly higher rate. There is also a comfortable common room with television, and a quiet garden at the back of the house. A full English breakfast is included in the very reasonable £3.50 per night per person tariff (£4.00 single).

London this summer will be very crowded owing to an unusually large number of visitors for the Queen's Silver Jubilee. Many hotels are already fully booked. Students, faculty, and their families should contact us immediately if they are interested in this excellent opportunity for reasonable London Accommodation. They should write to:

THE GOLDEN AGE OF COMEDY

FILM CLIPS

This Academy Award-winning film was the first in Robert Youngson's (WHERE COMEDY WAS KING, DAYS OF THRILLS AND LAUGHTER) series of silent comedy compilations. It concentrates on Mack Sennett and Hal Roach Productions made between 1923 and 1928. Among the directors are Frank Capra, Leo McCarey and George Stevens. There are scenes of slapstick with the Keystone Kops and Billy Bevan (creating the "battle with the oyster" gag); sequences from Laurel and Hardy's MURPHEY SLAP, THE SECOND HUNDRED YEARS and other zany films; and Hardy's WEEDS and George Stevens. Frank Capra, Leo McCarey, and Hal Roach are featured. This short subject depicts the inner workings of the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Clown College (which celebrates its 10th anniversary this year). Additionally, the fine Charles Eames film CLOWN FACE will be featured. This short subject depicts in awesome fashion the intricacies of clown makeup.

PACHNER WORKS AT MUSEUM OF FINE ARTS

A select group of oils and watercolors by William Pachner will be on view in the Hannas' Gallery of the Museum of Fine Arts from Tuesday, April 12 until May 29, 1977.

William Pachner, a Guggenheim Fellow, recipient of two Ford Foundation awards for painting (1959, 1964) and of a grant from the American Academy of Arts and Letters, made his winter home in Clearwater until 1972. He now resides full time in Woodstock, New York, where he is a member of the faculty of the Art Students' League Summer School.

Born in Czechoslovakia in 1915, he studied at the Academy of Arts and Crafts in Vienna and came to the U.S. at the outbreak of World War II. William Pachner gets his inspiration from nature. Yet his landscapes are never renderings of a specific place. With baroque, calligraphic shapes, he transforms the picture plane into a moving play of light and color. "There are no accidents in my work," the artist has said. His work is constructed with both heart and mind. Whether he paints a leaf, a hill, a tree, the sky, dawn or twilight, it is never a mere depiction of external reality, but a revelation of its essence. The harmony we find in his work is a fusion of unlike forces: stability and instability, motion and repose, for Pachner likes to preserve the irregularity, energy and contradiction he finds and admires in nature. Pachner has had more than a dozen one-man shows in New York City, and has exhibited by invitation in all the major national shows, including the Carnegie International, the Corcoran Biennial, the Whitney Museum Annuals, the Pennsylvania Academy and the Detroit Institute of Fine Art; in the U.S. Pavilion of the New York World's Fair of 1965, the Gallery of Modern Art in New York, and in numerous university galleries.

He is represented in the permanent collections of the Whitney Museum of American Art, the Joseph Hirshhorn in Washington, D.C., the Walter P. Chrysler and in our own Museum of Fine Arts, as well as in many other distinguished private collections.

The Museum of Fine Arts, located in downtown St. Petersburg, at 255 Beach Drive North, is open Tuesday through Saturday, 10 - 5; Sunday, 1 - 5. Admission is by voluntary donation. Guided tours are given Thursdays and Saturdays at 2 p.m.

How Strong is your Sternocleidomastoid?

This is the muscle located in your neck that keeps it in an upward-stretched position. When it loses its tone, you can get neck wrinkles. To combat this, lie down on the bed with your head hanging over the edge. Slowly raise your head so it is level with your body, then slowly lower your head back down. If you repeat this exercise 10 times every day, you won't have to worry about a crepey neck.
The men's record went to 0 and 3 as they lost a heartbreaker to the Enforcers. The game went two extra innings and USF gave it their best shot.

The hero of the game for USF was Frank Ashley. (Frank had suffered a hairline fracture of his ankle in the game two weeks prior to this one).

In the top of the eighth inning, left-center fielder Jon Hall had a hit but with one out and the bases loaded there was no play and just made it to second base to go to the Texas A&M series. Frank went to third base and to Frank Ashley, "way to go big guy!"

Burr & Ferguson Take Doubles Tourney

Russ Burr and Jim Ferguson took the USF Spring Doubles tournament. They soundly defeated the team of Jack Oeschger and Nick Prinz 6-2, 6-0. Nick and Jack fought valiantly but to no avail as Jim Ferguson played like an inspired madman to help clinch the title for the second year in a row. Congratulations to the winners and to the losers, there's always next year.

Women's Softball

The USF Women's ran up against a wall Thursday night April 21. That wall was the Looking Natural team as they turned the story of David and Goliathe around. This time little David got plummelled. This writer and the many fans who were there thought our girls deserved a better fate.

I wish them good luck in the next game and say thanks to USF's many loyal enthusiastic fans for their support. USF/St. Petersburg Women's Softball team edged Florida Power last Thursday 13-12. Well done!

Education...

Only 10% of the universities and colleges in this country now require one foreign language for admission. Since 1963, the number of undergraduate students studying foreign languages has declined steadily. Less than 20% of contemporary high school graduates know a foreign tongue. Why the change? One quick answer is that educators are more concerned with teaching students how to structure and write a correct sentence in English than they are in French and Spanish.

1:30 PM        Humor: Magician's Tool with Ralph Greenwood MAGICIAN

In his demonstration-lecture, Greenwood wants you, the audience, to be amused rather than amazed. In his more than 30 years of experience as a professional magician, Ralph Greenwood's magic has taken him from Maine to Florida with a side trip or two to Puerto Rico. He has also performed on television. Greenwood is a member of the Society of American Magicians (SAM), the International Brotherhood of Magicians (IBM), and holds the coveted Order of Merlin from IBM.

7:30 PM REBECCA
A DanceMime Concert

Rebecca calls it DanceMime. It’s her total integration of dance and mime, combining the beauty of line and poetry in dance with the realism, drama, and comedy of mime. Following her performance, Rebecca will discuss humor in movement, mime as a form of comedy.

Rebecca performs frequently in the U.S. and Europe. It was in Vienna that Marcel Marceau recognized her talent and personally tutored her for three years.

A select group of oils and watercolors by William Pachner will be on view in the Hannahs' Gallery of the Museum of Fine Arts from Tuesday, April 12 until May 29, 1977.

William Pachner, a Guggenheim Fellow, recipient of two Ford Foundation awards for painting (1959, 1964) and of a grant from the American Academy of Arts and Letters, made his winter home in Clearwater until 1972. He now resides full time in Woodstock, New York, where he is a member of the faculty of the Art Students' League Summer School.

Born in Czechoslovakia in 1915, he studied at the Academy of Arts and Crafts in Vienna and came to the U.S. at the outbreak of World War II. William Pachner gets his inspiration from nature. Yet his landscapes are never renderings of a specific place. With baroque, calligraphic shapes, he transforms the picture plane into a moving play of light and color. "There are no accidents in my work," the artist has said. His work is constructed with both heart and mind. Whether he paints a leaf, a hill, a tree, the sun, the sky, dawn or twilight, it is never a mere depiction of external reality, but a revelation of its essence. The harmony we find in his work is a fusion of unlike forces: stability and instability, motion and repose, for Pachner likes to preserve the irregularity, energy and contradiction he finds and admires in nature. Pachner has had more than a dozen one-man shows in New York City, and has exhibited by invitation in all the major national shows, including the Carnegie International, the Corcoran Biennial, the Whitney Museum Annuals, the Pennsylvania Academy and the Detroit Institute of Fine Art; in the U.S. Pavillion of the New York World's Fair of 1965, the Gallery of Modern Art in New York, and in numerous university galleries.

He is represented in the permanent collections of the Whitney Museum of American Art, the Joseph Hirshorn in Washington, D.C., the Walter P. Chrysler and in our own Museum of Fine Arts, as well as in many other distinguished private collections.

The Museum of Fine Arts, located in downtown St. Petersburg, at 255 Beach Drive North, is open Tuesday through Saturday, 10 - 5; Sunday, 1 - 5.

Admission is by voluntary donation. Guided tours are given Thursdays and Saturdays at 2 p.m.

How Strong is Your sternocleidomastoid?

This is the muscle located in your neck that keeps it in an upward-stretched position. When it loses its tone, you can get neck wrinkles. To combat this, lie down on the bed with your head hanging over the edge. Slowly raise your head so it is level with your body, then slowly lower your head back down. If you repeat this exercise 10 times every day, you won't have to worry about a crepey neck.

ENFORCERS 15

PLAYER OF THE WEEK

USF 14

FRANK ASHLEY

9 innings

The men's record went to 0 and 3 as they lost a heartbreaker to the Enforcers. The game went two extra innings and USF gave it their best shot.

The hero of the game for USF was Frank Ashley. (Frank had suffered a hairline fracture of his ankle in the game two weeks prior to this one.)

In the top of the eighth inning, left-center fielder Jon Hall had a collision at first base and suffered what appeared to be a sprained knee. Coach Fox having emptied the bench was without another substitute, so in came Frank, cast and all. Frank made it to second on a single and then showed us all that handicapped people with determination can still find their spot in life. Frank went to third on another single and just made it by executing a perfect head first slide. He scored on the next hit as the fans in the bleachers went wild.

The game was a tough one to lose and we wish the guys well in their next game, and to Frank Ashley, "way to go, big guy!"

BURR and FERGUSON TAKE DOUBLES TOUERNEY

Russ Burr and Jim Ferguson took the USF Spring Doubles tournament. They soundly defeated the team of Jack Oescher and Nick Prinz 6-2, 6-0. Nick and Jack fought valiantly but to no avail as Jim Ferguson played like an inspired madman to help clinch the title for the second year in a row.
Congratulations to the winners and to the losers, there's always next year.

Scores:
Burr & Ferguson d. Doss & Doss default
Harris & Gladd d. Pucci & Regis 6-3, 6-2
Wheeler & Hodge d. Caleb & Seulen 6-1, 6-1
Prinz & Oescher d. Winters & Horning default
Semi- Finals
Burr & Ferguson d. Harris & Gladd 6-0, 6-0
Prinz & Oescher d. Wheeler & Hodge 6-3, 6-3
Final

Women's Softball

The USF Women's ran up against a wall Thursday night April 21. That wall was the Looking Natural team as they turned the story of David and Goliath around. This time little David got pummeled. This writer and the many fans who were there thought our girls deserved a better fate. I wish them good luck in the next game and say thanks to USF's many loyal enthusiastic fans for their support. USF/St. Petersburg Women's Softball team edged Florida Power last Thursday 13-12. Well done!

EDUCATION...

Only 10% of the universities and colleges in this country now require one foreign language for admission. Since 1963, the number of undergraduate students studying foreign languages has declined steadily. Less than 20% of contemporary high school graduates know a foreign tongue. Why the change? One quick answer is that educators are more concerned with teaching students how to structure and write a correct sentence in English than they are in French and Spanish.
