CROW'S NEST

FOR YOUR ENVIRONMENT

WHAT YOU CAN DO...

There are many little things you as an individual can do to help the cause of conservation. Here are a few. Undoubtedly, you will think of many more. Good luck!

* Do not use persistent pesticides such as DDT, Aldrin, Dieldrin, Heptachlor, Endrin, Lindane, or Chlordane.
* For short distances, walk or ride a bike. Use public transportation instead of your car whenever possible.
* If you commute, fill your car with passengers. One car carrying four persons spews out only 25% as much pollution as four cars carrying only one.
* Tune up your car. Demand lead-free gas.
* If you know a company polluting the air, water or land, write the company president. Ask him what he is doing about it.
* Inform yourself, then write a letter to your local newspaper editor on any ecological issue about which you feel strongly.
* Write, phone, or tell your views to your township supervisor, alderman, state representative or congressman.
* If you're a stockholder in any utility or industry, write the president and ask him what "our company" is doing to improve environmental quality.
* If you're a farmer or landowner, leave some unmowed fence rows or brush piles for the birds and animals to live in.

MANAGEMENT ASSOCIATION LUNCHEON...Darrell Hefte:

A broad approach is the key to success for those who want to be managers, according to Harry Kirschke, project manager at Honeywell Inc., St. Pete.

This was the advice Kirschke gave to approximately 35 members of the St. Pete USF Management Association at a Luncheon in the Princess Martha Hotel, Thursday.

"Do not be mesmerized by your academic specialty. Kirschke who holds a M.A. degree with a specialty in Economics from the University of Santa Clara, stated.

It is essential to know what people are up to and "to be familiar with all aspects of the enterprise. To succeed in gaining that position you want, one needs to know the latest thinking and tools, he added.

This week's selection is Adelaide Waterfield's STRAWBERRY GLACE SALAD. Mrs. Waterfield is the secretary for Student Affairs.

1 1/2 cups boiling water
2 packages strawberry-flavored gelatin
2 (7-ounce) bottles lemon-lime carbonated beverage
1 pint fresh strawberries
1/3 cup sugar
1 (8-ounce) package cream cheese
3/4 cup finely chopped walnuts

Wash and hull strawberries, but leave whole. Sprinkle with sugar. Have cream cheese at room temperature. Shape cream cheese into balls, using one slightly rounded teaspoon for each. Roll in chopped nuts to coat each cheese ball.

Arrange five or six cheese balls in bottom of an oiled two-quart mold. Fold strawberries into partially set gelatin. Pour enough of gelatin mixture into mold to cover cheese balls. Arrange another layer of cheese balls and cover with gelatin.

Repeat until all cheese balls and gelatin are used. Chill until firm. Loosen along edges with a spatula and invert on serving plate. Garnish with greens and additional fresh strawberries. Makes 10 servings.
