Day 85 | 99 Days of Art in St Pete – Chill out with Cool Art this Summer!
Check out Kristin Beauvois’ Contemporary Abstract Portraiture, “The Messengers” at the Studio@620. Between truth of experience and recollection you find a blend of color and abstraction that is the basis for Kristin Beauvois’ portraiture. Using ink and watercolor she creates soft and sometimes disharmonious images that evoke and imply meaning and narrative.

“Preoccupied with the elusiveness of identity, my intentions are to create a body of portraiture that depicts moments of vulnerability that are then fictionalized by a mix of memory and imagination…. because the mind and its memories are capricious in nature they distort what my eyes see as truth and the paintings become something between the actual experience and my recollection of it.” –Kristin Beauvois
