Denelta Adderly-Henry started in the Office of Human Resources on Sept. 5. She most recently worked as a Payroll Specialist at the USF College of Marine Science where she was responsible for payroll, payroll distribution, new hire paperwork, new hire orientations, recruitment/advertisement, and was the contact for H1-B transfers and permanent residents.

Prior to working with the College of Marine Science, Denelta was an HR Representative in Human Resources at USF Tampa where she worked in the Employment Center overseeing recruitment and appointment processes. She also provided training on hiring issues and was on the project team for the E-Recruit/Talent Management module, which is expected to start within the next nine months.

Prior to USF, Denelta worked as an HR Assistant for eight years with the National Insurance Board in Nassau, Bahamas. Denelta received her Management degree from St. Thomas University.
