USF offers elementary education courses at Pasco Hernando Community College; Advising and registration session set for Aug. 14

ST. PETERSBURG, FLA. (July 24, 2002) -- Students who are interested in taking elementary education courses at Pasco Hernando Community College, New Port Richey campus, that lead toward a USF bachelor degree can attend an academic advising session at 6:30 p.m. on Aug. 14 in Building C, room 205A.

The courses, at the junior and senior level, will be offered at PHCC through the University of South Florida St. Petersburg's College of Education. USF is a major research university and its degrees are recognized nationally.

USF academic advisers will be on hand to answer questions about the program and qualified students also can register for classes at this time. Students can apply to USF online at www.usf.edu.

Students should bring copies of transcripts and CLAST scores, and the $20 registration fee to the advising session.

The PHCC New Port Richey campus is located at 10230 Ridge Road. For more information, contact (727) 553-1511.
