USF St. Petersburg Sets Pasco Session for Education Hopefuls

The University of South Florida St. Petersburg College of Education will hold an advising and information session at Pasco Hernando Community College for anyone interested in entering the Elementary Education program.

Prospective students should have completed their Associate of Arts (A.A.) degree or be near completion. Candidates need to bring a copy of their transcripts and a copy of their CLAST scores.

Students may apply to the University and if eligible, to the College of Education. A registrar will be on hand to register students for classes.

Date: December 9, 2002

Time: 6:30-7:30 p.m.

Place: Pasco Hernando Community College
10230 Ridge Road
New Port Richey, Florida
Building C, Room 205A
