Contains draft reports covering the activities and recommendations of the Study Commission on Child Welfare.
RG 89-01/4 (Box 7, Folder 3).
During its November 1989 special legislative session, the Florida Legislature created a Study Commission on Child Welfare to review state laws regarding dependency, delinquency, adoption, the guardian ad litem program, child abuse and neglect, child care facilities, human services, and social and economic services.

In addition, this folder contains a four-page list of recommendations omitted from the 31 December 1990 draft.

Includes meeting minutes, statements, and correspondence produced and received by the FMHI Task Force as it reviewed the programs and direction of the Institute. The 1988 Florida Legislature mandated the establishment of this Task Force to consider a number of program and policy issues at FMHI, as well as to proffer recommendations that would maximize FMHI as a state resource.
Also includes Task Force "Digests."
